Boxing Features Season's First Outdoor Smoker

Featured by boxing bouts, vocal numbers, and an impromptu jitterbug exhibition—the first outdoor smoker of the year proved an entertaining success at Emerson Stadium last Wednesday evening.

Moved by the torrid tempos of the "Eight Counts of Rhythm," Cadet Joseph Pfulger of the 24th Battalion acceded to popular demands and provided an off-the-program jive dance with Miss Jo Beck of Chapel Hill, adding an unscheduled highlight to the entertainment.

Pugilistic encounters of the evening were led by Cadet Robert G. Tucker—fifth ranking light heavyweight of the country—who went six rounds in the squared ring, two apiece with Cadets Bergman, Murphy, and Holmes.

Inter-squadron competition bouts saw Cadet Cloyd (Devastator) draw with Cadet Murray (Coronado) in an even battle; Cadet Bragaw (Catalina) eke out a hard won victory over Cadet

White (Buffalo), and Cadet Pointer (Coronado) outpoint Cadet Martin (Skyrocket) in a slugfest.

Guitar selections by Cadet Kite and vocal renditions of Cadet Owen—formerly of Fred Waring's orchestra—filled in as other outstanding numbers, in addition to music by the "Eight Counts of Rhythm."

Lieut. Roland Logan, USNR, acted as master of ceremonies.

Navy Department Forms New Training Command For Lighter-Than-Air

New recognition to the wartime value of lighter-than-air craft was given by the Navy Department last week with the formation of a separate Training Command for airship personnel. It is the first Training Command for the airship branch and emphasizes the importance of lighter-than-air craft in the U. S. Navy air program.

First Chief of Naval Airship Training is Capt. Charles E. Rosendahl, USN, a veteran of 20 years lighter-than-air experience, who has been nominated by the President for promotion to the rank of Rear Admiral. All airship training is now combined under his direction as a single functional unit.

Creation of the new command gives the Navy five training commands for naval aviation, the others being Naval Air Primary Training Command, Naval Air Intermediate Training Command, Naval Air Operational Training
