Coronado Squadron Wins Fall Sports Program Crown

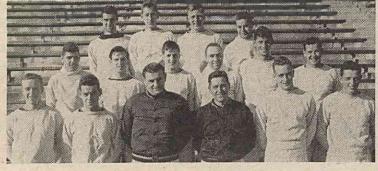

Registering a total of 185 points, not including yesterday's competition, the Coronado Squadron won top honors in the Fall Sports Program and will receive tonight's Special Liberty Award.

Individual champions, also crowned this week, include the Coronados in swimming, the Hell-divers in boxing, Skyrockets in soccer, Mustangs in track, Kingfishers in wrestling, and the Mariners in football.

Of this group, the Coronados, coached by Lt. (jg) L. H. Lux, USNR, were undefeated in swimming with 10 straight wins, while the Kingfisher wrestling team, coached by Ensign A. R. Holzaepfel, USNR, and R. F. Fromhart, USNR, won eight wrestling matches against no losses.

The Skyrockets, not including yesterday's play, won 16, lost four and tied two in Soccer competition to nose out the Catalinas who won 14, lost six and tied one. Coach of the winners is Lt. (jg) V. S. Mare, USNR, while Cadets S. H. Christman, 36-K-3, R. L. Hawthorne, 34-G-3, and E. Urban, 34-G-3, did outstanding work on the field.

Finishing the fall program with nine wins and two losses the Mustangs, winners of the Regimental Track Meet two weeks ago, captured the track crown. Tuesday afternoon they defeated the Mustangs, 47 to 31. Cadet standouts included John Arrigoni, N. H. Austin, A. W. Clunn, G. Hanson, and I. B. Richardson. Coach of the

THE FOOTBALL, wrestling, and swimming champions of the Fall Sports Program, which ended yesterday, are shown in the above photos. In the upper left hand corner is pictured the Mariner football team; on the right is the Kingfisher wrestling team, undefeated in eight starts, while lower center shows the Coronado swimming team which won 10 meets against no defeats. Pictures of the leading teams in boxing, soccer and track will be in next week's CLOUDBUSTER.

Ensign Howard E. Thompson's USNR, boxing team won eight matches against three losses. Cadets J. E. Perry, 34-G-I, a 138 pounder, and C. P. Long, 34-G-I, were the stars.

The Mariner Squadron ended the fall program in last place, but their football team, coached by Ensign W. E. Dole, USNR, won the gridiron crown. Their record was six wins, one loss, and two ties. Two weeks ago they played a team from the Aircraft Carrier USS Card, and won, 13 to 0.

Runners-up in the standings included the Devastators and Buccaneers in wrestling with six wins and two losses; the Coronados in boxing with six wins, two losses and three ties; the Helldivers in track with seven wins, three losses and one tie; the Wildcats and Devastators in swimming with records of eight and seven wins respectively against three losses; the Coronados in football with four wins, a loss and a tie, and the Catalinas in soccer.

Standings through Thursday showed the Coronados with 185 points, Helldivers 156, Skyrockets 153, Mustangs 152, Devastators 149, Catalinas 129, Kingfishers 128½, Buccaneers 126½, Vindicators 120, Buffalos 117½, Wildcats 117, and the Mariners 108½.

There will be no Sports Program competition next week as all squadrons will start practice for the winter program which gets underway on December 6th.

For the winter program football will be replaced by basketball, and gym and tumbling replaces track. The other sports—wrestling, boxing, swimming and soccer—will continue as in the past.
