

To Fight Tonight

Boxers Risk Undefeated Record Against the University of Virginia

Not as strong as last year, but ready, willing and able, the Pre-Flight boxing team will risk its undefeated record against the University of Virginia tonight at Charlottesville.

Last year the boxers won four matches in as many starts, and tonight's affair against Virginia will be their first outside competition in 1944.

For the past two weeks Lieut. Alfred Wolff, USNR, head boxing coach, has been sending the Cloudbuster mittmen through their paces. Against Virginia they will, however, be the decided underdog.

The following are expected to fight tonight:

123—James Carroll, Seaford, N. Y., 41-I-3, Buffalo.

127—Andy Shreve, Washington, D. C., 41-J-3, Coronado.

135—James Peete, Arlington, Va., 39-E-1, or Phil Perkins, Lynn, Mass., 39-E-1. Both are Vindicators.

145—Edward Scott, Memphis, Tenn., 41-J-2, Helldiver.

155—Warren Michael, Charlottesville, Va., 40-H-3, Mustang.

165—Fred Hier, Pleasantville, N. Y., 40-H-2, Mariner.

175—Dick Fuchs, Forest Hills, N. Y., 39-F-3, Coronado.

Heavyweight—Martin Kunberger, Philadelphia, Pa., 41-J-1, Devastator.

Michael, who will be fighting in his home town, will act as captain of the Cloudbusters.

—Coming Up—

Tonight at Charlottesville, Va., the varsity boxers open their 1944 season against the University of Virginia, while in Raleigh the Pre-Flight basketball team goes against North Carolina State.

Lieut. Charles Speidel's, USNR, wrestlers are idle this week, but will return to action next Friday when Cherry Point comes to Chapel Hill.

Other than the contest in Raleigh tonight, the basketball quintet faces three tough opponents during the next eight days. On Wednesday Camp Davis, with a host of ex-college stars, comes to Chapel Hill, and on Saturday and Sunday the Cloudbusters will perform in Norfolk, meeting the Naval Air Station on Saturday and the Naval Training Station on Sunday.

The boxers will return to action on Friday, February 4, with the Fourth Field Artillery from Ft. Bragg furnishing the opposition.

Cadets Invited

Cadets are invited to attend the basketball game between Carolina and VPI and the boxing match between Carolina and Maryland tonight in Woollen Gymnasium. First on schedule is the basketball game which gets underway at 1900.

Wrestlers Defeat Duke by 15 to 11

A strong finish, which saw the Pre-Flight wrestlers win their last five bouts in a row, was responsible for the Cloudbusters scoring a 15 to 11 victory over Duke here last Thursday.

Cadet J. L. Ross, 175-pounder, put the Pre-Flighters in the lead for the first time by gaining a decision over Woodall, and Cadet H. J. Horan decisioned Duke's Bill Milner to clinch the meet. The latter bout was delayed 40 minutes when blackout was sounded.

Only Duke's F. W. Stender, 121-pounder, was able to register a fall as all other bouts were decided by decision, two of them in overtimes.

Other than the regular varsity, Duke brought 15 extra men to compete against the Cloudbusters. The future fliers won all of these bouts, while Duke got four.

Summary:

121—Stender, Duke, won by fall over Moulton, 2:59.

128—Stroupe, Duke, decisioned Hogg.

136—Mundy, Pre-Flight, decisioned Stanhope in overtime.

145—Weil, Duke, decisioned Rizik in overtime.

155—Evans, Pre-Flight, decisioned Patrick.

165—Bowen, Pre-Flight, decisioned Robinson.

175—Ross, Pre-Flight decisioned Woodall.

Unlimited—Horan, Pre-Flight, decisioned Milner.

Referee: Quinlan (UNC).

Naval Academy Defeated, 45-38

Fine defensive play, which limited the Naval Academy to but six field goals in the first half, paved the way for the Cloudbusters to register a 45 to 38 victory at Annapolis last Saturday afternoon.

It was Bud Palmer who did most of the Cloudbuster scoring, but the entire first team of Myers, Skaug, Dye, Elser, and Palmer all played important roles in the victory.

A tight zone defense kept the Middies from scoring a field goal during the first eight minutes of play, and at halftime the Pre-Flighters were ahead, 33 to 16. Bud Palmer had accounted for 20 of those 33 points, and he added 5 more in the second half to give him 25 for the afternoon.

Other than Palmer, Skaug had 9 points and Myers 8.
