

SPORTSPROGRAM

(Continued from page one)

According to their seniority on the station.

(c) In order to determine the standings for each battalion in any sport the following diagram will be used.

The team finishing first in any sport will be credited with 30 points, the second place team 20, third place 10, fourth place 5, and last place 0. Points gained in the Sports Program will be added to the points gained in the other phases of competition in order to determine the final standing for all battalions.

Lieut. Comdr. Burton Ingwersen, USNR, station athletic director, has charge of the administration and conduct of the new program, and the individual Battalion Commander will automatically become the Athletic Director for his battalion.

"Every effort will be made," says Lieut. Comdr. Ingwersen, "to get the battalions to work together as a team. Teamwork will win this war, and the cadets here will realize the importance of working together."

During the regular Sports Program competition the cadets will be judged on more than winning or losing. Among the things to be considered will be spirit, determination, command of skill, self control, courage, coordination, enthusiasm, judgment, stamina, and team cooperation.

At the end of the regular two weeks' period the battalion having the most points will be judged the winning battalion and receive the special liberty award.

RICKENBACKER

(Continued from page one)

lead to victory. In World War I I had but 35 hours of flying time to my credit when I participated in my first combat mission. You men will have more at the beginning than I had at the end of the last war."

Arriving here around three o'clock in the afternoon, Captain Rickenbacker inspected the Pre-Flight program for a few minutes prior to his talk. He showed particular interest in the survival program which is included in Pre-Flight Training.

The U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School and the International Relations Club of the University jointly sponsored the visit, and Captain W. S. Popham, USN, Senior Naval officer in Chapel Hill, introduced the distinguished visitor.

Cadet Farley Pitches One Hitter As Pre-Flighters Defeat UNC, 9-1

Two games out front in Ration League play, the Cloudbusters will be out to increase their lead this afternoon at Durham when they go against the second place Duke Blue Devils at 1500.

Here on Wednesday, behind the superb one hit pitching of Jack Farley, the league leaders registered an easy 9 to 1 victory over the University of North Carolina, and on last Saturday, at Annapolis, Md., the U. S. Naval Academy was defeated by the same score.

Dusty Cooke, playing center field, started the Pre-Flighters to victory at Annapolis when he led off with a single in the second frame. McConnell, who followed, walked, and Crampsey, next up, singled home the first run. That was the beginning of the end for the Naval Academy who scored their lone run in the fifth frame on

RATION LEAGUE STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Pre-Flight	7	1	.875
Duke	4	2	.666
Carolina	3	2	.600
State	0	9	.000

successive singles by Finas, Jacobs, and Wayer.

Aided by two errors the Cloudbusters scored three in the seventh. Again Cooke figured in the rally, his single scoring the first run.

Paugh started on the mound for the winners, and was relieved by Farley in the last of the sixth. Somerville finished up in the ninth.

Cooke, Crampsey, and Thompson had three hits apiece to pace the hitters. Wayer collected two of the six blows registered by the Naval Academy.

Against Carolina, Cadet Farley had a no hitter until Bill Gilliam slapped out a line single between second and short with one down in the ninth.

The game was Navy and Farley all the way. In the first, third, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth innings, the tall cadet retired the Tar Heels in order.

Carolina scored its one run in the sixth inning on no hits when Dallas Branch was walked, advanced to second on Falk's error, the only Cloudbuster miscue of the contest, went to third on a fielder's choice and tallied on Gilliam's fly to left field.

Three errors gave the Cloudbusters three runs in the first, and another was added in the second when Hoos singled to start the inning, and Gaulin tripled.

Three singles, a base on balls, and two more errors added four more Pre-Flight runs in the fifth. Gaulin, with a triple and two tor S. Mare, USNR, platoon officer; Lieut. John O. Reynolds, USNR, instructor, navigation; and Lieut. James G. Wall, USNR, instructor, navigation.

PROMOTIONS

(Continued from page one)

Those adding half a stripe are Lt. (jg) Charles L. Carroll, Jr., USNR, instructor, navigation; Lt. (jg) William H. Ewing, USNR, platoon officer; Lt. (jg) Thomas E. Jones, USNR, platoon officer; Lt. (jg) Ralph T. Kifer, USNR, assistant, sports program; Lt. (jg) William B. King, USNR, assistant coach, basketball; Lt. (jg) Harry A. Koss, USNR, drill officer; Lt. (jg) John J. McDonald, USNR, platoon officer; Lt. (jg) John H. McFarland, USNR, platoon officer; Lt. (jg) Carl L. Muller, USNR, assistant coach, swimming; Lt. (jg) Mark A. Panther, USNR, assistant coach, track; Lt. (jg) Howard G. Price, USNR, assistant, gym and tumbling; Lt. (jg) Sven O. Rosengren, USNR, assistant, survival program; Lt. (jg) Frank D. Sills, USNR, assistant coach, wrestling; Lt. (jg) George D. Smith, USNR, assistant, sports program; Lt. (jg) John R. Smithson, USNR, instructor, navigation; Lt. (jg) Clyde E. Wilkinson, USNR, platoon officer; and Lt. (jg) William R. Hoover, USNR, assistant coach, hand to hand.

Open House for 51st

The coeds of Kenan Dormitory—the center dormitory opposite the arboretum—will hold open house for cadets of the 51st Battalion this afternoon from 1600 to 1800. All members of the 51st are invited to use this opportunity for getting acquainted.

singles, led the Cloudbusters at the plate. Falk had a home run and single to his credit, the former being scored in the eighth with the bases empty.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Carolina	000	001	000-1 1 7
Pre-Flight	310	040	01x-9 10 1

Farley and Hoos. Crocker, King, and Walters.

Cloudbusters Finish Second In Triangular Meet

Charlie Beetham, wearing the colors of the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School, won three first places and 15 points, but the best the Cloudbusters could do was second place in the triangular track meet held last Saturday at Durham between the U. S. Naval Academy, Duke University and Pre-Flight.

First with 86 points was the Naval Academy, while the Cloudbusters had 45 1/3. Duke was third with 31 2/3.

Running on a wet track and in a slow drizzle, the Annapolis team registered eight first places. Beetham was first in the 440, 880 and low hurdles. Mark Panther, former national title holder of the javelin throw, scored a throw of 202 feet 2 3/4 inches.

—Coming Up—

Today at 1500:
Pre-Flight vs. Duke in baseball at Durham.

Today at 1430:
Dual track meet at Annapolis, Md., between combined UNC-Pre-Flight track team and the Naval Academy.

Wednesday at 1630:
Pre-Flight vs. Camp Butner in baseball there.

Saturday at 1500:
Pre-Flight vs. Camp Butner in baseball here.

Saturday at 1330:
Duke vs. Pre-Flight in track on Fetzer Field.

Sunday week, May 21, at 1500:
Pre-Flight vs. Tech-Hawk from BTC 10, Greensboro, in baseball here.

Movie Schedule

Sat., May 13—Free movie at Village Theatre, "Around the World" with Kay Kyser and Joan Davis. Feature starts at 1400, 1537, 1930, and 2107. Complete show one hour, 37 minutes.

Sun., May 14—Free movie at Village Theatre, "Crash Dive" with Tyrone Power and Ann Baxter. Feature starts at 1310 and 1503. Complete show one hour, 52 minutes.

Buy Bonds
Until You Drop Bombs—