

Cloudbusters Meet Tech-Hawk Here Tomorrow

The Tech-Hawk baseball nine from BTC 10, Greensboro, will come to Chapel Hill tomorrow for a game with the Cloudbusters starting at 1500 on Emerson Field.

Possessing one of the finest service teams in the state—perhaps the entire south—the visitors have won eight out of nine contests and have defeated, among others, the strong Naval Air Station nine from Norfolk.

Among the former Major League stars on the visiting club will be Sgt. Taft Wright, for many years one of the leading hitters in the American League, and Pvt. Lee Gamble, who used to wear a Cincinnati uniform. Both men are hitting over .400 at this writing.

Naval Academy Wins in Track

The U. S. Naval Academy proved too much for a combined University of North Carolina-Pre-Flight track team last Saturday afternoon at Annapolis, and the latter went down in defeat, 78 to 48.

Jim Pettit, holder of the Academy record of 9.6 seconds for the 100-yard dash, ran the century in 9.7 seconds in addition to taking the 220-yard dash in 22 seconds flat.

Charlie Beetham, former Big Ten, National AAU and national collegiate half-mile titleholder at Ohio State, easily paced the field in the 880-yard run with a time of 1:59.4.

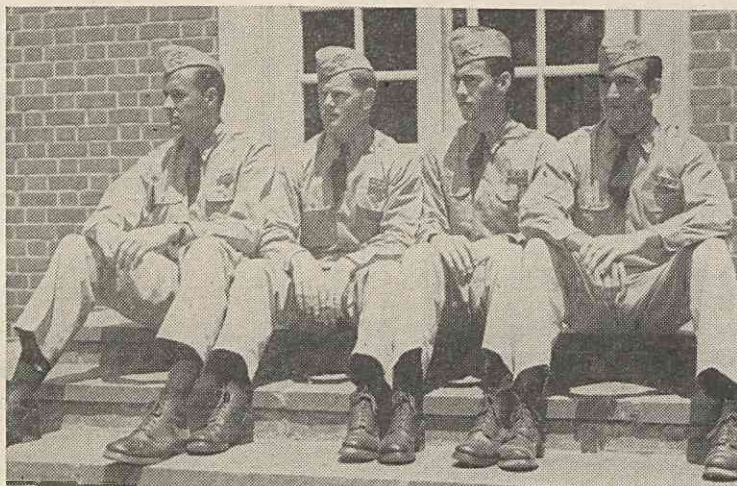

Navy's Walt Barry spurred ahead in the final lap of the mile run to beat out Julian McKenzie, by Southern Conference champion, by 30 yards in one of the best races of the day.
