SPORTS PROGRAM

wrestling competition all contests were unusually close. Not only were the boxing results decided by one bout, but all of the fights were very close. In swimming the final event on the program decided the winner of the meet, while only five points separated the track participants.

Cadets Wally Suess and Sarbreaux scored two goals apiece and the 52nd defeated the 54th, 4 to 2, in the best soccer game played to date. Suess, besides doing fine offensive work, was the outstanding player on the field with his all-round ability. Time and again he received praise from the audience for his fine performance.

SURVIVAL

Lieut. G. D. Kepler, USNR, in charge of the program here; Lt. (jg) John Craighead, who is stationed in the survival program here, and Ensign J. J. Lynch, USNR, of the Iowa Pre-Flight School.

Present plans, according to Lieut. Kepler, call for the visiting officers to spend one week on the base, and one in the woods on a circular course which will include the Navy Camp, Ed's Mountain, Haw River, Stone Mountain and New Hope Swamp.

While on the base for the first week the officers will have study hours and lectures in the morning, field trips in the afternoon, and movies and lectures at night. The instruction will continue for 14 straight days, Sunday included.

After the officers complete their instruction here they will go to Pensacola for one week, and from there to Miami for seven more days of instruction. Then they will proceed back to their home bases to instruct survival to men in the service.

BASEBALL

Pre-Flight matched the lads from Greensboro run for run through the first four innings. But in the fifth the Hawks put together home runs by Hatton and Trippi, doubles by Wright and Pitcher Harrington and a single by Catcher Piskor for four runs to take a 7-3 lead. The Cloudbusters got one back in their half of the same inning but the Hawks pulled ahead 9-4 with two more runs in the sixth.

George Granger, who relieved Harrington in the fifth, was credited with the victory, while Ed O'Neill, second of four Pre-Flight pitchers, was charged with the loss.

The two teams have broken even in four games played to date.
