Regimental Staff For 57th Battalion

The New Way

Through a Navy Service Paper, a sailor offers this version of a wartime wedding ceremony.

CHAPLAIN: "Wilt thou, John, have this woman as thy wedded wife, to live together in so far as the Bureau of Naval Personnel will allow? Wilt thou love her, comfort, honor and keep her, take her to the movies and come home promptly on all 48's?"

Man: "I will."

CHAPLAIN: "Wilt thou, Mary, take this sailor as thy wedded husband, bearing in mind liberty hours, ship schedules, restrictions, watches, sudden orders, uncertain mail conditions and various other problems of Navy life? Wilt thou obey him, and love, honor and wait for him to learn to wash, fold and press his uniforms?"

GIRL: "I will."

MAN: "I, John, take thee, Mary, as my wedded wife from 1700 to 0730, as far as permitted by my commanding officer, liberty hours, subject to change without notice, for better or worse, for earlier or later, and I promise to write at least once a week."

GIRL: "I, Mary, take thee, John, as my wedded husband, subject to the orders of the officer of the deck, changing residence whenever the ship moves, to have and to hold as long as the allotment comes through regularly, and there I give thee my troth."

CHAPLAIN: "Then let no man put asunder these whom God and the Bureau of Naval Personnel have wrought together. By virtue of the authority in Navy regulations of the Bureau of Personnel Manual and the latest of bulletins from the Bureau of Personnel concerning matrimony, you are now man and wife, by direction of the commanding officer."

... Odds and Ends ...

"Is your daddy home, son?"

"No, sir. He hasn't been home since mother caught Santa Claus kissing the maid."

Wednesday night's entertainment in Memorial Hall had the largest attendance of any similar show in the past year. The reason: Movies were shown of the Cloudbuster's 21 to 14 defeat of the Naval Academy.

During the showing of the films Lieut. Comdr. Glenn Killinger, head football coach, gave a running commentary over the loud-speaker system.

Several other shorts were shown, and the Pre-Flight band opened the program with a 25-minute jam session.

He mumbled a few words in church. He was married.

He mumbled a few words in his sleep. He was divorced.

Lieut. P. O. (Kidd) Brewer, who has been Public Relations Officer here since the station was commissioned, was detached this week for duty outside the continental United States. He will be replaced by Lieut. Leonard Eiserer who has served for the past 15 months as Welfare and Recreation officer.

Lieut. Brewer was well known among the writing fraternity throughout the state and nation. Last week he spoke before a sports-writers luncheon in New York, and was interviewed on the Ted Husing show over the nationwide CBS network.

Sailor Dad to Son: "It's none of your business how I first met your mother, but I can tell you one thing—it certainly cured me of whistling."

Five members of the post office changed their rates from Sp(M) to MaM this week. William F. Pendergraft changed from Sp(M) 1c to MaM1c; Allen A. Barker and Richard H. Ward, from Sp(M)2c to MaM2c, and Edgar W. Drinkgren and Ralph A. Bauthues, from Sp(M)3c to MaM3c.

Two Negroes—neither one can tell time—but won't let on to the other.

First: "Say, Niggah, wot time am it?"

Second (thrusting out his watch): "Dere it am."

First (looking at watch): "Darn if it ain't."

During the occupation of Paris, the Nazis shifted their airplane parts factories into the Parisian subways to escape Allied bombardment. Sounds like a German version of an Underground movement.

Sailor: "What does a bride think of as she walks down to the altar?"

WAVE: "That's easy—aisle, altar, hymn."
