

NAVY DAY

Point. On Oct. 26-27, he will speak at Shelby three times and at Morganton once.

Lieut. Russell Curry, of the Personnel Office, will appear at Salisbury and Asheboro on Oct. 27, while Lieut. John R. Gaddy, platoon officer, Chaplain George W. Cummins, and Lieut. A. K. Marckwald, personnel officer, will participate in the Navy Day celebration at Raleigh.

The national observance of Navy Day was inaugurated Oct. 27, 1922, under the auspices of the Navy League of the United States, in order that the American people might become more familiar with the Navy and gain a greater appreciation of its importance and influence in our national life. Oct. 27 was chosen as the date because it marks the anniversary of the date in 1775 when the Continental Congress received the bill providing for the creation of an independent fleet.

Last year at least 5,763,000 people attended 6,407 Navy Day celebrations throughout the country, and the observance this year is expected to be the greatest in history.

Cloudbusters Come From Behind To Gain 13-13 Tie With University of Virginia

After defeating Duke and the Naval Academy on successive week ends, the Cloudbusters were held to a 13-13 tie against the University of Virginia last Saturday at Charlottesville.

Unable to break through the stubborn Virginia defense in the first quarter, the Cloudbusters scored late in the second quarter when George Lorentz recovered a blocked punt for the touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

The Cavaliers received the ball on the kickoff and marched 87 yards, all on running plays, with Dick Davis bucking over the tally. Johnny Duda's placement put Virginia ahead, 7-6.

In the third quarter, Duda intercepted a pass by Graham on the 26 and returned to the Cloudbusters' 23. Lucien Burnett rounded end for a touchdown. Duda's kick went wild.

A second blocked punt put the Cloudbusters in scoring position late in the fourth quarter. After the ensuing exchange, Graham returned 19 yards to the Virginia 26, where he passed to little Wally Schumacher for the touchdown. Buell St. John added the extra point to knot the score.

The Cloudbusters rushed into Cavalier territory twice in the first quarter and twice in the second, but were unable to carry across a score. Graham's 39 yard sprint around end carried to Virginia's 21, but four plays later the Cavaliers took over on the 13.

The starting lineup which Coach Pond expects to send out against the Cloudbusters contains several experienced performers. The Cloudbusters will have to keep a weather eye on Frank Stanczak, former Lafayette back, who can pass as well as run; Bob Hamilton, ex-Vanderbilt speedster; Arnold Scott, fleet-footed wingback from Montana U.; and Tom White, former Hawthorne, Calif., High School star. At blocking back Coach Pond can call upon such rugged citizens as Dennis Drowes, a grid discovery from Detroit Lakes, Minn., and Buck Jones, a 225-pound Wake Forest veteran.

The Skycracker line also boasts plenty of rugged talent, including Bill Evans, of the Naval Academy and Ted Scruggs, of Rice, at the ends; Ollie Jack, of Baylor, and Bill Eckert, a high school standout from St. Mary's, Pa., at the tackles; Ken Oetting, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Fred Wendt, of the Naval Academy, in the guard slots; and Gardner "Tuffy" McCormick, of Baylor, at center.

While the Cloudbusters are expected to bounce back from the surprise 13-13 tie at Virginia, the team is not in top shape physically. Almost certain to be on the sidelines is Ben Lum, regular tackle, and Frank Aschenbrenner, the little scat back who scored the winning touchdown against the Naval Academy.

Probable starters will be Melbourne Sheehan and Warren Anderson at the ends, Leland Yager and George Lorentz at the tackles, Kermit Atkinson and Dale Pulver at the guards and R. O. Huneycutt at center.

Dan Weitekamp is the starting quarterback, Stan Koslowski and Bill Wilson will be at the halves and Otto Graham at full.
