

AROUND the STATION

Music by members of the Pre-Flight School band here will soon be heard by overseas service men and women in all parts of the world, as a result of recordings made last week for a new OWI series of "Let's Go to Town" programs . . . The transcribed programs featuring local news and entertainers are now being prepared for OWI distribution by radio stations throughout the U. S. . . . The Cloudbuster band was requested by Winston-Salem Station WSJS to furnish music for a 30-minute transcription about the Winston-Salem area . . . Two numbers were turned out for the program by the 18-piece dance band, while the popular Four Clefs recorded three.

Christmas Note: Good news for cadets is the Recreation Center's announcement that it again will wrap Christmas packages free of charge . . . Last year several hundred packages were wrapped for Pre-Flighters at the main-street center . . . But bring 'em in early.

Lieut. Thomas Moore, who recently joined the Academic Dept. as an aerology instructor, served on destroyer duty in the Sicilian invasion and Tunisian campaign . . . Formerly an aviation cadet at Corpus Christi, he was commissioned ensign, sent to Recognition School at Ohio State, and later was attached to the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Forces aboard the USS Earle . . . Saw some action, too.

While Cadet James Smith, 63-E-1, is just starting on the long road over, two uncles of the Drexel Hill, Pa., Pre-Flighter have returned after two years of duty in the Pacific—one a captain in the Navy, the other a colonel in the Marine Corps.

Varsity wrestling and basketball teams already are working out and a third varsity sport, boxing, will start next Friday, it was announced this week by Lieut. J. A. Young, head boxing coach . . . All cadets interested are urged to report to the boxing pavilion at 1620 on Friday. Attractive meets are being scheduled, both at home and away.

60th Batt Wins Honors in Close Station Battle

Only 10 points separated the first three battalions in the overall competition for the two weeks just completed.

The senior 60th battalion was the winner with 255 points, while the 62nd had 250, and the 61st, 245. In fourth place was the 63rd, with 170 points.

Not until all the sports results were in was the winner decided. After military, academics and class athletics had been totaled the 60th had 160 points, the 62nd had 150, the 61st had 110, and the 63rd had 60.

In the sports competition the 61st set the pace with a 135-point total by winning first places in swimming, track and wrestling. The 60th rated first in boxing and "B" soccer, and the 62nd had first place in football.

Winning first places in both military and academics gave the 60th an advantage the other battalions were never able to overcome. Only the 62nd really presented any competition, winning first place in class athletics, second in military, and third in academics.

Athletes Feted

Members of the varsity football team, the "B" squad, and the cross-country team were feted at a special banquet in the Pine Room the Thursday night before the Camp Peary game.
