

THE Sports Watch

Now that the season is over, the Carolina Pre-Flight coaches can speak freely. And speak freely they did this week by naming two all-opponent teams—one composed of college players and the other of service opponents.

As was expected the Naval Academy predominated. On the college eleven selected, Navy had no less than seven players, Duke has two, and Wake Forest and Virginia, one each.

Navy was also included in the all-service opponents selected but only two players made the grade as Camp Peary placed five men, Bainbridge three and Jacksonville one.

Duke's Davis at Full

Ben Martin and Bramlett, both of the Navy, were the end choices, while Whitmire of Navy and Owens of Wake Forest were the tackle selections. Chase of Navy and Wolfe of Duke rated the first-team guard spots, and Jack Martin, another Navy standout, was selected at the pivot position.

Backing up this outstanding array of football is a backfield which compares with the finest in the land. Durdan of Bainbridge is the quarterback, Jenkins of Navy and Dudas of Virginia rate the halfback positions, and Tom Davis of Duke is at full.

Whitmire, Jenkins Rate

Vanderweghe, who caught three touchdowns against the Cloudbusters in the Bainbridge game, teams with Schilling of Camp Peary at the ends on the all-service eleven. Whitmire of Navy gets the left tackle spot, while DiFillippo of Camp Peary plays the same position on the other side of the line. Letlow, Camp Peary, and Hanna, Camp Peary, are the guards, while Matusa, also of Camp Peary, is at center. Cheatam, Bainbridge; Jenkins, Navy; Leckonby, Jacksonville, and Johnson, Bainbridge, make up the first team backfield.

All in favor say "Aye," opposed "No."

On The Ball

BALLET STUFF—Pass interceptions featured the Camp Peary game as the Cloudbusters intercepted seven passes, while Camp Peary had four to its credit. Jitterbug Kellogg, 40, caught this one with Otto Graham, 48, ready, just in case. The intended receiver was Andy Uram, 32, one of the offensive stars of the visitors. A total of 55 passes was thrown by the two elevens.

Cloudbusters Basketball Quintet Will be Speedy, Aggressive Team

A speedy and aggressive Pre-Flight quint will open the basketball season on Saturday, Dec. 2, if the Cloudbuster candidates develop as Lieut. R. A. Raese, head coach, expects.

"Our team will lack the height and experience of last year's team," predicts Lieut. Raese, "but it should make up for it with speed and aggressive play." The opener will be against the Greenville Air Base in Woollen gymnasium.

To date 17 games have been booked tentatively. Among the Cloudbusters' opponents will be Georgia Pre-Flight (twice), Duke (twice), and the Naval Academy. Some of the games will be played as part of double-headers with the University of North Carolina as co-hosts.

30 Candidates Drilling

Thirty candidates are drilling with D. E. Leakey, R. E. Mehl, J. R. Tobias, W. D. Meador, S. A. Meserve, H. G. Clann, W. Gregory and C. H. Brace looking particularly impressive.

Assisting Lieut. Raese with the coaching are Lieut. O. L. Cochrane, formerly of Kansas State; Lieut. (jg) W. B. King, Northeast Missouri State Teachers, and Lieut. (jg) W. H. Dye, Ohio State. Lieut. Raese coached the University of West Virginia team when it won the National Invitation Tournament in New York in 1942.

The tentative schedule: Dec. 2, Greenville Air Base, here; 7, Camp Butner, away; 9, Cherry Point Marines, here; 13, Seymour Johnson Field, here; 20, Fort Bragg, here; 29, Duke, here.

Jan. 3, Catawba, here; 6, Camp Butner, here; 10, Duke, at Durham; 13, Norfolk Air Station, here; 20, Jacksonville Air Station, here; 22, Norfolk Training Station, here; 24, Fort Bragg, away; 27, Ga. Pre-Flight, here.

Feb. 3, Jacksonville Air Station, here; 10, Ga. Pre-Flight at Athens; 17, U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

U. S. Offers to Sell Assault Boats to Public

Washington, (CNS)—The U. S. Maritime Commission has offered for sale to the public 2,216 rowboat-size Army assault boats. The boats weigh 165 pounds each, measure 13½ feet in length and are 5 feet, 4 inches wide amidships. Many are new and the balance are used but serviceable.

Cloudbusters Close Grid Year With Fine Record Despite Defeat By Peary

The record stands at 6 wins, 2 losses, and a tie, but that doesn't tell the true story of the Pre-Flight football team for the past fall.

No Cloudbuster athletic team, since this school was commissioned over two years ago, has created as much interest among the cadets, officers and enlisted personnel of this station as this football eleven which defeated, among others, the Naval Academy and Duke University, two of the top teams in the nation.

Last Saturday afternoon in Kenan Stadium, before 6,000 fans, the season came to a close, Camp Peary winning, 19 to 7. However, the Pre-Flighters were minus the services of Stan Koslowski, and early in the game lost Jitterbug Kellogg through injury.

Lead at Half-Time

At half-time the score favored Otto Graham & Co., 7 to 0. Camp Peary scored once in the third quarter, but failed to make good on the extra point. In the fourth the visitors added two more touchdowns and an extra point to make the final score, 19 to 7.

The entire Cloudbuster team did a fine job. Anderson, Lorentz, Flick, Huneycutt, Atkinson, Pulver, Williams, Bray, Sheehan, Schumacher, Harding, Hurson, Lyman, Donnelly, Lum, Barksdale, McMillian, Reinschmidt, Veith, and Klinkenberg saw action in the line, and all gave a good account of themselves. The backfield featured Kellogg, Sanders, Fellabaum, St. John, Pearce, Levay, and Graham, who is a certain bet for All-America service honors.

Graham's record long will be remembered. He threw 26 passes and completed 14 for 127 yards. He intercepted three passes and ran them back for 68 yards. He downed several Peary backs who momentarily seemed in the clear.

In brief: The Cloudbusters opened the season with a 27-14 win over Cherry Point. Followed a 21-to-14 win over Navy, a 13-to-6 victory over Duke, a 13-13 tie with Virginia, a 3-to-0 win over Georgia Pre-Flight, a 14-to-13 victory over Jacksonville Air Station, a 20-to-49 loss to Bainbridge, a 33-to-18 win over Georgia Pre-Flight, and the aforementioned Camp Peary game.
