

'Buster Trackmen In Meet Tomorrow

10 Teams File Entries In Big Race Carnival

A total of nearly 150 tracksters, representing 10 college, university, and service units, will compete in the annual Invitation Indoor Meet sponsored by the University of North Carolina and to be held in Woollen Gym tomorrow night, it is announced by R. A. Fetzer, Carolina director of athletics.

Teams entered include Clemson, Georgia Pre-Flight, Virginia, N. C. State, Georgia Tech, Cherry Point Marines, Laurinburg-Maxton Air Base, Norfolk Naval Training Station, Carolina Pre-Flight, and the University of North Carolina.

Carolina Pre-Flight's Charles Beetham, middle distance ace, and Earl Mitchell, nationally famous one- and two-miler from Camp Lejeune, assure the meet of at least two national standouts, in addition to many of the best track men in this section. Mitchell is entered individually, not as a representative of Lejeune.

Dale Ransom, assistant track coach at Carolina, reports that the entries filed indicate the meet "will be just as good as any in the past."

As in the past, there will be an admission charge for the meet, $1.00 for reserved sections and $.50 for students, cadets, and enlisted personnel.

Pre-Flight Boxers Seek Repeat Win Over Marylanders

'Buster boxers will be out to repeat last week's triumph over the University of Maryland when they enter the ring with the Terrapins at College Park tomorrow night.

A week ago Coach Ab Young's mittmen mauled the Terps in Woollen Gym, 5-3, after conceding the 120-pound bout on a forfeit for lack of a ringman in that division.

The return meet is the last on the season's schedule, with the record at present standing at two wins, one tie, and one loss.

Summary of last week's meet follows:

- 120-pound class: George Murphy (M) won on forfeit.
- 127-pound class: Jim Calvey (PF) defeated Ray Richards.
- 135-pound class: Al Salkowski (PF) defeated Bill Filbert.
- 145-pound class: Byron Hostetler (PF) defeated Bill Greer.
- 155-pound class: Tom Maloney (M) knocked out R. T. Kirkpatrick in third round.
- 165-pound class: W. C. Craigmile (PF) defeated Al Novik.
- 175-pound class: Max Schumacher (PF) defeated Dick Terry.
- Heavyweight: Ken Malone (M) defeated Ben Lum.

A cross section of the war veterans entertained by the Cloudbuster court team during the past week is shown above, as they watched Pre-Flight trim the Jax Flyers in a 52-48 thriller last Friday. Now convalescing at nearby Camp Butner, the group included some back from wars in Europe and in the Pacific. On the right, Otto Graham, whose 24 points figured prominently in the court triumph, chats after the game with Pfc. Neil K. Colliard, of Detroit, Mich., back from 18 months in the Southwest Pacific, and Cpl. Norman L. Robertson, of Wilmington, Del., who has had 22 months in the same area.

Pre-Flight tankmen defeated Duke University's V-12 service men entries by a score of 20-13 in the swimming meet held last Saturday in Bowman Gray pool.

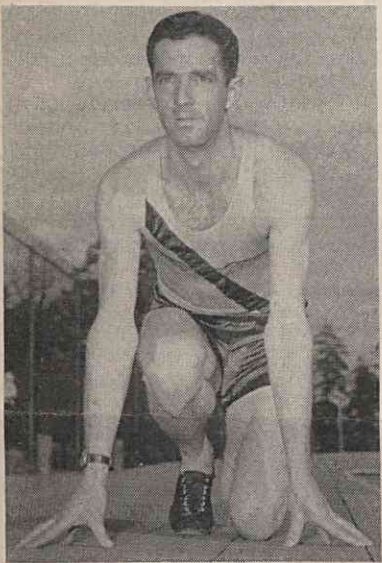

Led by Cadet A. L. Hausman, who won the 50-meter free style event, and Cadet W. G. Maas, who copped the 50-meter back stroke race, the 'Buster entries took eight of the 12 point winning places in the three service events, as follows:

In the annual Carolinas and National Junior AAU championships held the same night, Pre-Flight compiled 18 points to take third place behind the University of North Carolina, with 67, and Duke, with 24. Cadet Albert Stanley won the only first place for Pre-Flight in this meet.

Lt. (jg) Charles Beetham, former Ohio State star and new head track coach here, is one of the many tracksters slated to flash their speed at the UNC Invitation Indoor Meet in Woollen gym tomorrow night. Now in his 14th year of competition, Lt. (jg) Beetham won the Rodman Wanamaker international trophy as the standout athlete in the 1945 Millrose games in which he competed while on leave recently.

Weakened Quintet Faces 'Crackers Tomorrow Night

A Cloudbuster court team, greatly weakened by the transfer this week of its two leading scorers, will invade Athens, Ga., tomorrow night for its second encounter with Georgia Pre-Flight.

Minus his ace forwards, Otto Graham and Dean Meador, who are now in primary flight training at Glenview, Ill., Coach Dyke Raese will seek to shuffle up a combination capable of downing the Skycrackers for the second time this season. The first battle of the Pre-Flight quintets two weeks ago went to the 'Busters by a 35-25 count.

No defeats marred hardwood play during the past week, the courtmen tripping Jacksonville Naval Air Station, 52-48, last Friday, and submerging the Wake Forest Deacons, 78-27, last Monday.

In the game with the Jax Flyers, each team was good for 20 goals, the margin of victory coming on charity tosses, with the cadets connecting on 12 tries and the visitors on eight.

The Deacon tilt, the last on the home court this season, was a runaway for the 'Busters and a parade of substitutes with 32 players cracking the lineup—20 of them for Pre-Flight.

Battery Test Records Are Of Long Standing

Just to give every cadet something to shoot at, here are the all-time records in the battery test, as reported by Lt. (jg) William E. Dole of Mass Exercise:

Chins—27, established by M. E. Stouffer, 21st Batt.

Sargent Jump—33 inches, A. H. Kirk, 42nd Batt.

Push-ups—80, F. E. Hahn, 40th Batt.

Speed Agility—25 seconds, T. E. Cavallo, 32nd Batt and J. A. Gullen, 40th Batt.

P.F.I.—139, B. N. Reynolds, 30th Batt.
