

Duke, UNC Are Foes In Track, Baseball

Unbeaten Tarheels Offer Cadets Test In Ration League

A disappointment thus far in Ration League competition, the Cloubuster baseball team tomorrow will have a golden opportunity to atone for earlier defeats when the unbeaten, pace-setting University of North Carolina nine is encountered at 1500 in Emerson Stadium.

The Tarheels, coached by Bunn Hearn, twice have met and conquered North Carolina State, the team which has been a nemesis to the Cloubusters since the season opened.

State won the first three games played with Pre-Flight this season. A fourth game was rained out Wednesday and was due to be played Thursday, too late for this edition.

Tomorrow's game with UNC is the only one scheduled for this week-end. The next Ration League game will be a week from Saturday, with Duke as the foe.

Standings of Ration League as of April 25:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
North Carolina.....	2	0	1.000
N. C. State.....	3	2	.600
Duke	0	0	.000
Pre-Flight	0	3	.000

Baker, Top Hitter, Slugs For 22 Bases In 21 Times At Bat

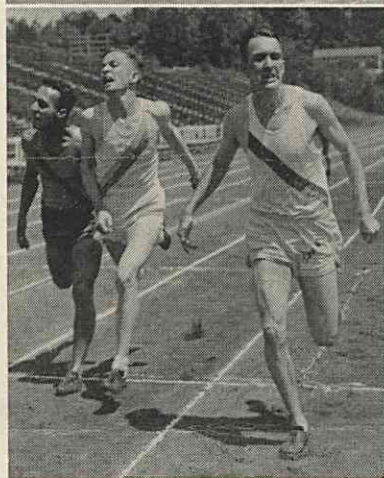

Not only does Catcher Bill Baker still pace the Cloubuster hitters with a .523 average but his 11 hits in 21 times at bat have been good for 22 bases.

Baker twice has slammed for the circuit and, in addition, has a triple and three doubles to his credit.

Three other 'Busters are hitting above .300, with Frank Shaughnessy of the 65th Batt clouting at .351, Bill Hancock of 11-R-B hitting .307 and Anthony Bozich, also of 11-R-B, socking .305.

The leading hitters who have made at least 15 official trips to the plate as of the Camp Lejeune game last Sunday follow:

	Ab.	R.	H.	Av.
Baker	21	7	11	.523
Shaughnessy..	37	10	13	.351
Hancock	13	3	4	.307
Bozich	36	11	11	.305
Kellogg	17	5	5	.294
Anthony	29	3	8	.276
Ragsdill	19	3	5	.263
George	37	8	8	.216

MISLEADING—Both of these photos show University of Virginia trackmen showing the way to Pre-Flight speedsters but in the dual meet last Saturday at Fetzer Field the Cloubusters were the winners, 65 1/5 to 60 4/5. Above, Wenger of the Cavaliers captures the 100-yard dash, with O. W. Young of the 68th Batt second and J. N. Hutchins of the 66th third. In the lower photo Trachsal of Virginia noses out Teammate Canada in the mile, with S. Circirello of the 65th Batt in third place.

Two Years Ago

The mast and yardarm at the lower end of Alexander field were dedicated. Cadet squadron representatives hoisted flags representing the 12 sport squadrons.

* * *

A Pre-Flight softball league composed of five officer teams and three from the crew opened play. The officers won two of the three games played against the enlisted men.

* * *

Cadet Paul Owen of the 23rd Batt, for five years a soloist with Fred Waring's band, is a leading member of the Cadet glee club here.

* * *

The Cloubuster nine defeated Carolina and Davidson, but bowed to Duke. In the Ration League standings, Pre-Flight stands third with three won and three lost.

* * *

The Pre-Flight track squad overwhelmed Catawba by a score of 97 3/4 to 28 1/4 points.

* * *

Cadet Gene Aiello, 13th Batt, created the water color mural now hanging opposite the main entrance in Navy Hall.

—Buy More War Bonds—

Cinder Team Seeks A Second Win Over Devils At Durham

A third track victory in four meets will be the goal of the Cloubusters tomorrow when Coach Charles Beetham's squad opposes Duke at Durham. It will be the second meet between the two teams, Pre-Flight having opened its season with a 73-to-57 triumph over the Blue Devils.

Beaten only by Georgia Pre-Flight this season, the Cloubusters will reign favorites tomorrow but keener competition is expected as Duke is reported more advanced now and will be competing on its own track.

Latest victim of the 'Buster trackmen was the University of Virginia, which bowed here last Saturday in a spirited meet, 65 1/5 to 60 4/5. As has been the case in each winning meet this season, superiority in track events—especially at the middle distances—brought victory to Pre-Flight.

Daum Paces 'Busters

Coach Beetham's cadets won five first places, four runner-up honors and seven third places in the eight track events. Virginia won four first places and a tie in six track events.

John Daum, 64th Batt, again paced the 'Busters, winning the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles. C. S. Bacik of the 65th captured the 440, with J. F. Moore and W. J. Cunningham helping to create a clean sweep in this race, and other first-place winners were Goode in the 880; Buckworth and Francis, who tied in the two-mile run; McCoy in the broad jump and Gregg, Neal, Barrow and Swenson, who tied for first place with Virginia's Speer in the high jump.

An order for 2,000,000 baseballs and 58,000 baseball uniforms has been placed for spring delivery by the Army and Navy.

Cloubuster Band Marks Anniversary

Upward of 80 members of the Cloubuster band and their guests attended a buffet supper and dance at the Carrboro headquarters last Friday in celebration of the band's first anniversary aboard this station.

Cmdr. James P. Raugh, commanding officer, was among those present and in a short address he congratulated the band on its anniversary.

The band glee club rendered a choral offering that was received enthusiastically.

—Buy More War Bonds—

Cloubuster Nine Shows .500 Average For Competition Outside Ration Loop

While not so successful in Ration League play, the Cloubusters are able to show a .500 percentage for six games of non-league competition following their 7-to-4 victory last Sunday over the Camp Lejeune Marines.

Catawba Visits Emerson

Behind the six-hit pitching of Donald Roudenbush and Gene Flick, Pre-Flight tied the score at 1-1 in the second inning and then staged a four-run uprising in the third frame to take a lead that never was lost. Thirteen hits bounced off the 'Buster bats. Against Catawba College the day before, however, the Cloubusters did not fare so well. Jack Taylor, 17-year-old hurler, let down Coach Wes Schulerich's nine with three hits and struck out 10 to win, 8 to 2. Cleveland and Bryan, 'Buster pitchers, gave up a dozen hits.

Two more games outside of the Ration League will be played this week. On Tuesday the Catawba team will visit Emerson Stadium for a second game and on Wednesday the Cloubusters will entertain the ORD Tech-Hawks. Both games will start at 1600.