

Camera Highlights

A FEW OF THE well-known personalities who have visited here during operation of the Pre-Flight School and some of the outstanding events that have taken place are pictured here as follows: (1) Vice President Henry A. Wallace; (2) typical view of a military review in Kenan Stadium; (3) British Ambassador Lord Halifax; (4) Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy; (5) Artemus L. Gates, Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air; (6) Gen. A. A. Vandegrift, Commandant of the Marine Corps; (7) Vice Admiral R. Fenard, head of the French Naval Mission, and Rear Admiral H. Nomy, head of French Naval Aviation, shown with Comdr. James P. Raugh, commanding officer; (8) station scene shortly after 1900 on Aug. 14, 1945, when President Truman announced that the Japs had surrendered; (9) view of memorial service in Kenan Stadium for late President Roosevelt; (10) Vice Admiral Randall Jacobs, Chief of Naval Personnel; (11) Capt. Eddie Rick-enbacker, World War I ace; (12) Comdr. David McCampbell, Navy's top ace with total of 34 enemy planes destroyed in air; (13) V-E Day service in Memorial Hall; (14) Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ralph A. Bard; (15) Rear Admiral George D. Murray, Chief of Naval Air Training.

