

SOCIAL & PERSONAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. May and family spent the past week-end at Atlantic Beach. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Moses and family of Tarboro and Miss Mae Strickland of Charleston, S. C.

Miss Jo Harper of Burlington spent Thursday with Misses Lessie and Hazel May.

Mrs. Jane Lancaster has returned to her home in Castalia after spending some time with her sister Mrs. M. A. Moses.

Mrs. Ralph Odom, Mrs. Dan Motley, Dan, Jr. and Velna and Miss Essie Gray Matthews, all of Rocky Mount were in Spring Hope Monday.

Andrew Collins of South Mills was a visitor in Spring Hope the past week.

Miss Beulah Bunn is spending several days at Carolina Beach with friends.

Miss Mable Dixon is at present on her vacation. During her holiday she plans to be at her home in Petersburg, Va. and take a boat cruise to New York City.

Miss Alice Manning was a visitor in town over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ward and daughter of Wilmington are visiting in the home of Mrs. J. A. Tunnell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hollingsworth are enjoying a stay at Carolina Beach this week.

Friends will be interested to learn that Mrs. T. E. Blount entertained at a 6 table bridge in Zebulon Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Sykes had a pleasant week end at Rich Square as the guest of Miss Bernice Belch.

Mr. Clarence Coppedge of Elizabeth City arrived in town Saturday. He will be here with his mother and sister until the last of this week.

Miss Annie Coppedge left last week for Virginia Beach where she will be until September 7th.

Miss Lucille Davis of Roanoke Rapids, assistant in the office of the County School Superintendent also the Smerngency Relief Administration branch office there, is spending a few days in Spring Hope with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Davis.

Mrs. W. O. Murray, who has been in failing health all summer, left Friday for Durham where she will take treatment for high blood pressure at Duke Hospital.

Miss Josephine Brantley returned Friday from a four-day visit to Miss Mary Frances O'Brien at Goldsboro. The girls were roommates at Greenville College.

Mr. Dwight Brantley of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, arrived in town Thursday for a week's visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. Brantley.

Frank Lane Wilder, who has been making a most successful tour of the southern states with a magazine selling crew, returned to his home here last week to recuperate from malarial fever which he contracted while at work.

Miss Verna Mae Pridgen oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pridgen of Spring Hope, is doing well following an appendicitis operation Wednesday morning.

Mrs. C. C. Johnson and Mr. Theo Eason, Jr., left Saturday morning to join Mr. Johnson, who is on the tobacco markets in Kentucky. They were accompanied by Miss Edith Morgan, who will visit friends in that state.

An unusual mishap that came near being fatal occurred to Miss Edith Morgan last week when she swallowed a piece of peach the wrong way, it lodging in her windpipe and obstructing breathing until a rush trip to Parkview Hospital was necessary to prevent death from smothering.

Henry Edwards, now in the army, was at home with his parents over the week end. He was looking fine and all dressed up in a handsome uniform.

J. W. Bass of Fort Bragg arrived at his home in Momever Saturday for a short visit with his parents.

Miss Jessie Mae Luper and Mrs. Marion Ward spent the past week-end in Raleigh visiting their sister, Mrs. Frank Bell.

Mr. Wayland Barbee of Hertford was a visitor in the home of his mother and sister several days last week.

Fidelis Class Meets

The Senior Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. L. Gay.

The meeting was in charge of the class president, Mrs. Gay, who conducted the devotional. After the business was attended to the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Elmo Edwards, served iced drinks with wafers.

The following are a few of those present: Mrs. Elmo Edwards, Ms. Roland Geddie, Mrs. Estelle Williams, Mrs. Ralph Hales, Mrs. Laddie Marshburn, Mrs. Clarence Pearson, Mrs. Bennie Strickland, Mrs. Edwin Mitchell, Mrs. Moon, Mrs. T. H. LeCroy, and Mrs. Eugene Beddingfield.

Mrs. Whedbee Receives Honors

On Wednesday evening following her arrival on a visit to Spring Hope, Mrs. Charles Whedbee of Greenville, the recent Miss Rachel Morgan of this city, was honored by Miss Ruth Morgan with a three course supper followed by bridge. Assisting Miss Morgan with passing the plates were Mrs. J. L. Matthews of Rocky Mount and Mesdames B. E. Morgan and C. E. Morgan of Spring Hope. The living room was decorated with garden flowers and ferns; the bridal motif being carried out in detail. Mrs. Whedbee was remembered with a beautiful boudoir lamp.

High score prize, a make-up kit, went to Miss Peggy Anderson; Miss Murray McGowan of Shelby was given a handkerchief for guest prize; Miss Edna Farmer received novelty matches for low score.

Those present were: Mrs. Whedbee of Greenville, honoree; Misses Elizabeth Brantley, Doris Pierce, Peggy Anderson, Murray McGowan of Shelby, Dorothy Chamblee, Virginia Baines, Dorothy Saunders, Annabelle Vester, Alma Vester, Edna Farmer, Eva Mae Lassiter, Vivian Murray, Elizabeth Bunn, Mesdames J. L. Matthews of Rocky Mount, C. E. Morgan, B. G. Morgan, Alfred May, R. T. Geddie, J. E. Upchurch. Invited in for supper were Misses Edith Morgan and Melba Gaskins.

Second in a series of entertainments for Mrs. Charles Whedbee, recent bride, was Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Bantley honored her with a lovely lawn bridge party and handkerchief shower. After several progressions at bridge, Miss Brantley presented Mrs. Whedbee with a silver dish. Miss Annabelle Vester, who held high score, was given a bon-bon dish; and Miss Murray McGowan was remembered with a sport handkerchief for guest prize. Miss Melba Gaskins held low score and received a handkerchief holder. As the guests were being served with ice cream, cake and punch, Master Coleman Brantley, nephew of the hostess, advanced holding a huge bouquet made of lovely handkerchiefs. This he presented to Mrs. Whedbee as remembrance gifts from the guests. Those present were: Misses Ruth Morgan, Alma Vester, Annabelle Vester, Virginia Baines, Rachel Coppedge, Dorothy Chamblee, Melba Gaskins, Hazel May, Lessie May, Eva Mae Lassiter, Peggy Anderson, Murray McGowan of Shelby, Sadie Lee Blount of Zebulon, Mrs. Garland Morgan, Mrs. Ivan Hardesty of Raleigh and the honoree, Mrs. Whedbee of Greenville.

Third in a series of honors extended Mrs. Charles Whedbee was Thursday night when Mrs. C. E. Morgan entertained with five tables of bridge. The entire lower floor was lovely with its decorations of mixed flowers. At the end of the progressions Mrs. Morgan remembered Mrs. Whedbee with a pair of wall plaques. Miss Vivian Murray received bath powder for high score, while Miss Ruth Morgan was awarded a linen handkerchief for low. The hostess served ginger ale with ice cream and cake. Nuts were also passed. Those playing were: Misses Sadie Lee Blount of Zebulon, Dorothy Chamblee Virginia Baines, Sadie Richardson, Elizabeth Brantley, Vivian Murray, Peggy Anderson, Dorothy Saunders, Edna Farmer, Doris Pierce, Alma Vester, Annabelle Vester, Eva Mae Lassiter, Ruth Morgan,

Elizabeth Bunn, Mrs. Ivan Hardesty of Raleigh, Mrs. Garland Morgan, Mrs. Alfred May, Miss Murray McGowan of Shelby and the honoree.

Honoring Mrs. Charles Whedbee of Greenville, recent bride, on Friday night, Mrs. Ivan Hardesty of Raleigh, Miss Sadie Lee Blount of Zebulon and Misses Dorothy Chamblee and Vivian Murray of Spring Hope entertained jointly with a lovely bridge party and bridal shower. The color scheme in decorations and refreshments was the green and white bridal motif. After three progressions, Mrs. Hardesty presented Mrs. Whedbee with a pair of beautiful yellow glad vases. Miss Eva Mae Lassiter was given a manicure set for high score and Miss Murray McGowan of Shelby received a china dish for guest prize. Mrs. B. G. Morgan, also a recent bride, was remembered with bath powder. Then the hostess served a delicious salad course with iced tea after which the guests were asked to go into the dining room. There a shower of attractive and useful gifts were arranged on the dining table. Those present for this lovely affair were: Mrs. Whedbee, the honoree; Misses Melba Gaskins, Ruth Morgan, Doris Pierce, Rachel Coppedge, Alma Vester, Annabelle Vester, Florence May, Edna Farmer, Virginia Baine, Hazel May, Lessie May, Eva Mae Lassiter, Peggy Anderson, Murray McGowan, Mabel Dixon, Dorothy Saunders and Elizabeth Brantley. Invited in for refreshments were Mesdames O. B. Moss, B. E. Morgan; Misses Sadie Richardson and Birdie Frank Lane.

SALE OF LAND FOR 1934 TAXES

(Continued from page 2)

Vacant lot part of W. G. W. Est. on Gum Alley	.97
Mrs. Dora Davis Her Home Place on Gum Alley	3.17
John W. Harris His home place on Pine St.	8.28
David Herndon His home place on Pine St.	12.81
Fred Herndon Est. His home place on Elm St.	5.65
Vacant lot Adj. Home place on Elm St.	1.23
Mrs. Lena Hudson Part of David Herndon Place on Poplar St.	4.09
Matilda Lucas Her home place on Gum Alley	5.91

D. M. Mills Mills Home place land in town	3.81
A. M. Minga Est. Vacant Williams lot on Ash St.	.97
Lucas lot	2.01
Home place on Branch St.	11.96
Roland Mears Yarbrough lot on poplar St.	5.79
Sykes lot on Poplar St.	5.50
Mrs. Hettie McBride Her home place on Pine and Ash Sts.	7.47
E. L. Pettiford His home Place on Elm St.	5.65
Vacant lot adj. Home place on Elm St.	.97
M. L. Pettiford Wilkins land—part in town	2.01
Mrs. Minnie Pridgen Part of Jasper Toney Place on Pine St.	7.47
T. W. M. Rice His home place on Pine St.	23.27
Kelly Richardson Est. Old home house burned lot on Rosin Hill	1.23
Brick yard lot	2.16
George Robbins His old home place on Pine St.	9.03
George W. Spivey Home place on Branch St.	6.31
J. W. M. Stone Dillard or Finch lot	4.35
Mrs. Mary Swanson Est. Old home place on Gum alley	3.20
Sid J. Thomas Est. Home place on Ash St.	5.13
Alford Edwards place on Ash St.	5.65
Rev. A. A. Thompson Part of Church lot on Poplar St.	3.05
D. M. Mills lot on Poplar St.	2.01
D. M. Mills lot on Poplar St.	2.01
W. T. Toney Agt. Old home place Pine or Ash St.	4.35
Wilkins lots on Ash St.	3.57
Farm Land on Popular St.	3.57
Bettie Whitley Wilkins land part in town	.77
Wright Whitley Est. Old Home place on Branch St.	5.13
A. Ed Wilkins Est. Old home place on Ash St.	5.91
A. L. Wilkins His home place on Gum Alley	9.82
Guilford Wilkins Est. Old Home on Rosin Hill	3.57
Joseph Wilkins Wilkins land part in town	.71
Penny Wilkins Est. Her old home place on Poplar St.	1.23
W. G. Wilkins Est. Jasper Wilkins Place on Branch St.	3.57
Ben Williams Home place on Pine St.	12.21

Service As Good As The Car Itself

Why Not Have Your Motor Reconditioned or Checked Over Before The Rush of Fall. We Can Give You Terms to Suit Your Needs Through The U. C. C. Plans If You Desire.

DON'T WORRY CALL MURRAY

Murray Motor Co.

SPRING HOPE, N. C.