

In Service

BILLY E. OWENS, son of Overseer and Mrs. S. L. Owens, joined the Air Force in January of this year. He recently had a 10-day furlough at home prior to being assigned to Scott Air Force Base, Ill. His address there is: A/3C Billy C. Owens, AF 14-191-180, 3316th Student Squadron, Box E-1.

TYSON J. WHITAKER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jud Whitaker (Twisting and Weaving, respectively), is stationed with the navy in California. His address: Co. 075, U.S.N.T.C., San Diego 33, Calif.

Employee's Son Receives Honor

JAMES FRANK GURLEY, son of Third Shift Superintendent Frank Gurley and a former employee, has received recognition as an Alabama high school coach and physical education teacher. Coach Gurley has been at Shorter High School since 1949 and has compiled an amazing record for that small Alabama school. His record there was the subject of a recent feature story in an Alabama newspaper in which it was pointed out that he received state recognition by being named this year's Southern All-Stars basketball coach.

NEWS IN BRIEF

SPOOLING

Mrs. Mae Smith, spooler tender, and her family visited the former's daughter, Mrs. Romell Tipton in Robinsville, N. C.

Cpl. Homer Newton, son of Mrs. Blanche Newton, starter maker, has returned to Fort Bragg, N. C., after spending several days at home.

Mrs. Leila Wilson, reclaimer, and her husband, Gomer Wilson, spent a week end visiting friends in Ruby Falls, S. C.

Mrs. Madge Hembree, warper tender, has been out for the past three weeks due to illness.

Mrs. Dorothy Beckham, spooler tender, and her family visited the former's sister, Mrs. J. W. Adams in Lexington, S. C.

Mrs. Aletha Davis, spooler tender, and her brother, John Dockery, starter maker, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bass Dockery in Murphy, N. C.

Mrs. Neddie Ward, spooler tender, her family, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cloninger along with their family spent a week end at Camp Firestone.

Mrs. Sara Nichols, warper tender, and her family spent a week end at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Arthur Gunter of Hot Springs, N. C., visited his sister, Mrs. Blanche Newton, starter maker.

Mrs. Leila Wilson, reclaimer, and her husband, Gomer Wilson, spent the week end at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Barnett at River Falls, S. C.

Mrs. Donnie Crawford, spooler tender, and her family spent the Labor Day week end at Lake James.

Mrs. Inez Davis, spooler tender, and her brother, John Dockery, starter maker, spent the Labor Day week end visiting friends and relatives in Murphy, N. C.

Mrs. Geneva Moody, winder tender, and her family spent a few days visiting relatives in Bryson City.

Pvt. Charles Wiggins of Fort Jackson, S. C., spent the Labor Day week end with his mother, Mrs. Rosalie Burger, starter maker.

WINDING

Mrs. Vernie Boyd, winder tender, visited in Raleigh, N. C., recently.

Mrs. Mable Tindell, winder tender, and her family spent the Labor Day week end in Loris, S. C.

Ralph Deal, sweeper, spent a week end in the mountains going especially for his grandmother's birthday dinner.

SHOP

Lathe Operators Marshall Gilbert, Preston Gilbert and Coy Bradshaw visited Oley Gilbert and Mrs. Phyllis Lionella in Baltimore, Md., during the Labor Day week end.

Electrician Horace Robinson and Mrs. Robinson entertained Mr. Umstott, engineer from Akron, recently.

Miss Helen Spencer, Main Office, has been working in the Shop office while Miss Phoebe Pearson is vacationing in Canada.

Troy Jones, Shop, visited his daughter and her family in Norfolk, Va., during vacation.

Painter Homer Harmon and his family spent their vacation in Western North Carolina mountains.

Plant Engineer W. G. Henson and Mrs. Henson entertained at a chicken dinner Engineer Harold Umstott and the following Shop employees: Cramer Little, Hazel Cauthen, Ed Taylor, and Horace Robinson.

Lathe Operator Marshall Gilbert, Mrs. Gilbert and their daughter spent the week of August 21 at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Sgt. W. G. Henson, Jr., who is stationed at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., spent the Labor Day holidays with his parents, Plant Engineer W. G. Henson and Mrs. Henson.

Assistant Plant Engineer H. A. Cauthen and Mrs. Cauthen spent their vacation in Florida.

Miss Phoebe Pearson, Shop Office, joined friends in Baltimore, Md., on September 11 for a tour of Canada.

Mrs. Rosie Francum, tool room clerk, had as guests during the Labor Day holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Myers of Washington, D. C.

School boys who have worked during the summer months and have gone back to school are James Harbin, Clyde Moss, Jr., William Little, Bill Hallows, Bobby Carl James, Marvin Hudson and Cheves Hammill.

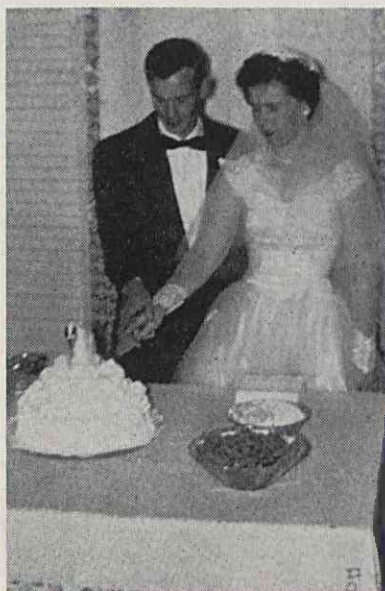

MAIN OFFICE NEWS

Mrs. Eula Wilson, supervisor of Payroll Department, and her husband, Clayton Wilson, vacationed at Myrtle Beach, S. C., and Camp Firestone.

The main office personnel extends a hearty welcome to its newest employee, Walter R. Barnes. Mr. Barnes lives with his parents on Route 3, Gastonia, N. C.

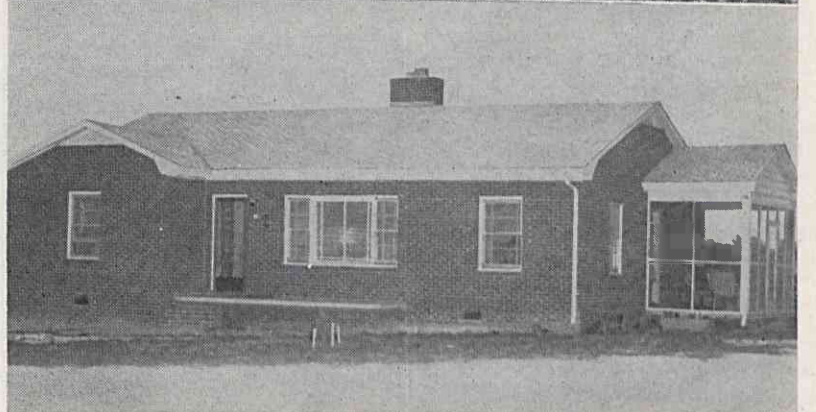

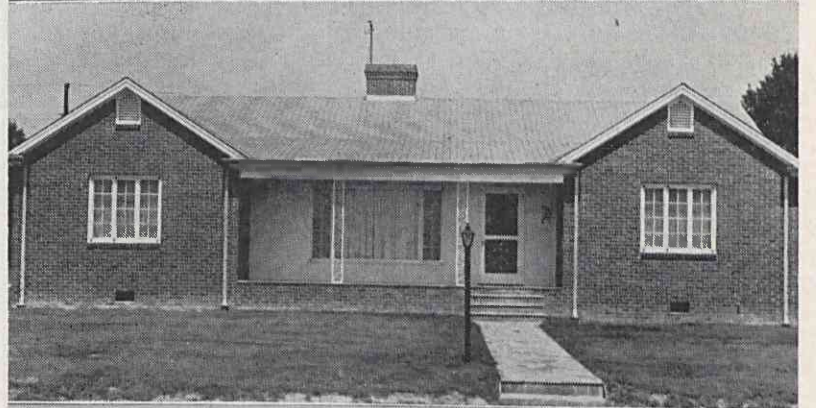

Miss Helen Spencer, main office, Misses Beth and Beverly Whitesides, and Mrs. Archie Whitesides vacationed recently at Daytona Beach, Silver Springs and Tallahassee, Fla. They went especially for the graduation of Bill Whitesides, son of Mrs. Archie Whitesides, who received his masters degree in Library Science from Florida State. While at Silver Springs, the group saw Esther Williams on location for the motion picture, "Jupiter's Darling".

Weddings

MISS LULA MAE NEWTON was married recently to Harlan Cape at the Crowders Creek A.R.P. Church. Miss Newton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newton of the Crowders Creek section.

Employees' New Homes

ROBERT HULL'S new home (top) is located at 1609 Fairfield Drive in Roland Park. It has six rooms, one and one-half tile baths, screened porch, and large carport. Frame construction is used throughout. The house has a full basement and is heated with natural gas. Mr. Hull is quality control supervisor for the plant. OVERSEER O. K. FORRESTER'S home, recently completed, (middle) is also located in Roland Park at 1723 Fairfield Drive. It's brick veneer with six rooms and two tile baths. Kitchen and den are panelled in blond limba and floored with cork tile, while wall-to-wall carpeting cover living and dining room floors. Other features include a combination screened and glassed sun porch, and a double garage adjoining at the rear. SAFETY DIRECTOR L. B. McABEE'S home, located at 901 Home Trail, is conveniently close to the plant in the rapidly developing Hillcrest section. It is brick veneer with hardwood floors and plastered walls. The six compactly arranged rooms and single bath are equipped throughout with flush doors. Other features include a screened porch and forced air oil heating.

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

Miss Llew Adams, Cotton Division Office, Mrs. Helen Bolick, respooler, Miss Betty Holbrook, billing clerk, and Miss Sue Van Dyke, Synthetic Division Office spent the week end recently at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Clyde E. Moss, assistant superintendent, vacationed at Nags Head, N. C., recently.

PERSONNEL

Mrs. Stanley C. Mansfield and her daughter, June, of Massachusetts spent 10 days with the former's brother, Time Study Engineer J. M. Cooper and his family. Mrs. Cooper, Jackie and Sandy spent one week at Ocean Island, N. C. Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Mansfield, and June Mansfield joined them for the week end.

Jimmy Moss, Time Study Department; Betty Moss, Main Office, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Moss, spent a week end at Camp Firestone.

Recreation Director Ralph Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spargo toured the Western North Carolina mountains recently.

Jimmy Moss, Time Study Department, left September 9th to enter State College, Raleigh, N. C., to study Industrial Engineering.

The employees of Personnel welcome W. R. Turner, Jr., to Time Study Department who is replacing Jimmy Moss.

In Memoriam

MRS. JULIA BEAM

Mrs. Julia Beam, mother of Yarn Man Jake Beam, died August 14 at her home in Bessemer City, N. C., at the age of 84. Deepest sympathy is extended to the family.

MRS. BEUNA VISTA DALTON JACOBS

Mrs. Beuna Vista Dalton Jacobs, mother of Shop Employee Oscar Jacobs, died at her home on South Liberty Street, September 12. The Shop employees extend their deepest sympathy to the Jacobs' family.