

People and Places

—From page 6

Mrs. Mary Lyles, warper tender, her husband Jesse, Weaving Department, and family spent part of their vacation in Warrenton and Henderson, N. C., visiting relatives, and fishing.

Mrs. Margaret Yates and family of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Lula Wilson, reclamer.

Furman McLeymore, yarn man, visited in Murphy, N. C., during his vacation.

Mrs. Neddie Ward, spooler tender, and family spent their vacation in Gainesville, Ga.

Mrs. Janice Tino, spooler tender, and family visited their son, David, and his wife in Chapel Hill, N. C.

Leffell Campbell, creeler, vacationed in Blue Ridge, Ga.

Jake Beam, yarn man, and family spent a day of sight-seeing in Boone and Blowing Rock, N. C.

Mrs. Rosalie Burger, starter maker, and family spent a week in Bryson City, N. C., visiting relatives.

Milton Nichols, second hand, spent part of his vacation at Camp Firestone.

Office Of Superintendent

Clyde E. Moss, Assistant to the Superintendent, and his family vacationed in Washington, D. C., Shenandoah Valley, Va., Luray Caverns and Windy Hill Beach, S. C.

Phil Williams, Assistant to the Superintendent, and his family spent their vacation in Williamsburg, Va.

General Superintendent Nelson Kessell and Mrs. Kessell are vacationing in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Jean Brock, Superintendent's Office, and her husband, Connie, visited in Columbus, Ga., and Linville, N. C., during vacation.

Miss Sue Van Dyke, Superintendent's Office, visited at Camp Firestone and rested in the country during her vacation.

Twisting

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fortenberry of Chicago, Ill., spent a recent vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stiles, at their 1541 Sharon Lane home.

Warehouse

Roosevelt Rainey spent several days during vacation in Winston-Salem, N. C. His sister, Emma Darby of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited in Gastonia one week in July.

John Verdery spent a week of vacation at Lake Junaluska, N. C.

Fred T. Morrow, Warehouse Supervisor, spent several days fishing for trout in Western North Carolina.

Jack E. Welman, Shipping, and Mrs. Welman spent their vacation visiting in Philadelphia and New York.

Charles Cauthen, Synthetics, had a week of vacation at Carolina Beach, N. C.

Lloyd Lewis and Mrs. Lewis vacationed at Nags Head, N. C. They did some deep sea fishing.

Bill Cloniger and Mrs. Cloniger spent the week of July 4 at Carolina Beach.

Albert Meeks and Mrs. Meeks spent a day in Hickory, N. C., on their vacation. They had as guests for a week, Mr. and Mrs. George Grier.

Thomas J. Ross, fork truck driver, attended a funeral in Seneca, S. C.

Weaving

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Turner, Sr., attended the dedicatory program of the new sanctuary of Victory Baptist Church, Guntersville, Ala., Sunday, July 15. The Turners are two of eleven charter members of this church, established 25 years ago in the Alabama textile town. Mr. Turner, a second hand in Cotton Weaving here, was the first church clerk of the Victory Baptist congregation in Guntersville. Recently he helped in collecting historical records to be used in connection with the sanctuary dedication in July.

Mrs. Ruth Wallace, tie-in-hand, and her husband spent their vacation in northern Michigan.

Millard Goins and family motored to Kure Beach, N. C., for a week of vacation, then visited relatives in Tennessee.

YOUR TRAVEL NOTEBOOK

Many On-The-Go Attractions During August

Camping, water sports, nature study; an apple festival, regional fair, folk festival, a historical drama, and street dancing. These and many more beckon the Firestone traveler in August to a month of late-summer fun and frolic.

Across the line in South Carolina are several state parks easily reached on a week-end trip from Gastonia. Most familiar of these is Kings Mountain State Park, about 18 miles from here. There are 6,141 acres in which is included the Kings Mountain National Military Park, monument to the battle which historians have called "the turning point of the Revolution." At this time of year, there are flowering plants among the oaks, pines, poplars and cedars.

OTHER STATE PARKS nearby Gastonia: Chester, near Chester; Campbell Pond, Cheraw; Pleasant Ridge for Negroes, near Marietta; Croft, Spartanburg; Paris Mountain, near Greenville; Andrew Jackson Historical, 8 miles from Lancaster. Swimming, boating, fishing, nature study, picnicking, camping and outdoor cooking are familiar activities at these parks. Cabins are available at some of the more than 20 state parks in South Carolina. For a detailed folder on family cabins, write the S. C. Commission of Forestry, Box 357, Columbia, S. C.

There are concerts Tuesday and Friday evenings and on Sunday afternoons at Transylvania Music Camp, Brevard, N. C., where the 10th an-

Dorsey Saylor and family enjoyed a vacation visiting friends and relatives in Kentucky. Mr. Saylor's brother accompanied them to Gastonia for a visit.

Eugene Jolly, cloth boy, and Robert Tart of the Spooling Department, toured Western North Carolina and Tennessee.

Mrs. Rachel Dugan and family spent their vacation in Western North Carolina and Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mattie McCann visited in Greenville, S. C., with relatives and friends during vacation.

Ray Deal and Mrs. Deal had a vacation at Clearwater, Fla.

James Reel and his family toured several states during vacation.

Howard Braswell and his wife, Mrs. Braswell, spent their vacation in Florida.

Pete Clarke and Mrs. Clark toured the state of Kentucky and visited Renfro Valley while on vacation.

Quillen Murray and his family spent their vacation at Savannah Beach, Ga.

Bill Calhoun and his family visited in Tennessee, Arkansas, and Georgia during vacation.

Raymond Varnadore and his family toured Western North Carolina and Tennessee while on vacation.

Roy Davis and his family spent their vacation in Florida and Atlanta, Ga.

Lona Taylor and her husband spent their vacation at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Wayne O'Dell and his family visited in Tennessee during their vacation.

Nina Dilling and her husband motored through Virginia during their vacation.

Helen Williams and Clara Conrad visited in Western North Carolina while on vacation.

R. E. Conrad spent part of his vacation at Camp Firestone at Bridgewater.

Winding

Mrs. Hazel Nolen, yarn weigher, had as guest July 4 her aunt from Henderson, N. C.

Ronnie Buchanan, son of Mrs. Julie Buchanan, winder tender, is recuperating from an illness.

Charlie Ballard, section man, suffered minor injuries in a wreck during vacation.

nual Brevard Music Festival opens August 10. At Hendersonville, square dancing provides lively diversion for visitors to the mountain area. Open-air dances are being held each Monday night during August. Other attractions in Hendersonville include Western North Carolina Fair, August 13-18; North Carolina Apple Festival, August 29-September 3.

More events of interest during the month are: Mountain Dance and Folk Festival, Asheville City Auditorium, 2-4; Bit and Spur Open Horse Show at Waynesville, 11; Grandfather Mountain Highland Games and Scottish Clan Gathering, Linville, 19; Ball's Creek Camp Ground Meeting, 103rd annual, Newton, 19-26; Community Fair, Drexel, 22-25.

AUGUST IS THE PEAK of the outdoor drama season in the Southeast. Newest on the roster of historical presentations is "Chucky Jack," playing just across the state line at Hunter Hills Theater, Gatlinburg, Tenn., through September 1. Produced by a non-profit historical group, "Chucky Jack" tells the colorful career of John Sevier, himself a North Carolinian, who became first and only governor of the State of Franklin, now a part of East Tennessee. Later, he was first governor of that state. The production is seen nightly except Sundays.

Other dramas playing through Labor Day are "Horn In The West," Boone; "Unto These Hills," Cherokee; "The Lost Colony," Manteo.

Owens-Sims

Mr. and Mrs. John Walter Owens are at home on Davis Park road after a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. Their marriage vows were exchanged in the parlor of Loray Baptist Church, Saturday evening, July 14, with Dr. Frank Malone, pastor, reading the ritual. The recent bride is the former Cecile Annette Sims.

Mr. Owens, son of S. L. Owens, overseer in Carding, and Mrs. Owens, is a supply clerk at the plant here. Both he and Mrs. Owens are graduates of Ashley High School.

Robert Mitchem, brother of Mrs. Ruth Neal, warper tender, was married June 29 to Miss Beverly West at the South Side Baptist Church in Spartanburg, S. C.

FIRESTONE TEXTILES
P. O. BOX 551
GASTONIA, N. C.

SEC. 34.66 P. L. & R.
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
GASTONIA, N. C.
PERMIT NO. 29

☆☆☆
First experience at deep sea fishing paid off quite to the satisfaction of Northen L. Harris, who retired from Cotton Weaving last November, after 20 years of service. Here, he proudly exhibits a string of king mackerel, caught on a recent angling trip off the coast of North Carolina, near Calabash, between Little River and Seaside. The retiree lives at 306 South Weldon street.

