

News Relayed by-

Mrs. Ruth Williams, & Mrs. Dwight Lee

Mr. & Mrs. Tom Fox, Mr. & Mrs. Everett Wease, Mrs. Dwight Brackett and son Tim, all of Wilmington spent the week-end with respective parents. Mr. & Mrs. Fox are taking their little son, Dennis back to Wilmington with them. He has been staying with his grandparents.

Mrs. Pete Noggle who was injured in an automobile wreck last week, is reported to be improving at the Shelby Hospital, where she is a patient.

Tech. Sgt. Joe Walker, of the Army Air Corps, who is stationed at Westover Field recently spent several days with his sister, Mrs. C. D. Forney, Jr. and Mr. Forney.

Miss Lorene Clay, a student at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Rev. & Mrs. G. W. Clay.

Mrs. Misher Shehan of Charlotte is visiting her sister, Miss Ema Whisnant and other relatives.

Mr. & Mrs. Dwight Lee had as Sunday Night supper guests, Mr. & Mrs. Tom Fox, Mr. & Mrs. Thurman Morrison and son, Harold, Mr. & Mrs. Clyde McIntire, Mr. & Mrs. Ned Williams and Mrs. Thomas Lee.

Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Hart have as guests this week, Mrs. Hart's Father, Dr. A. Y. Cartwright and her sister, Mrs. C. W. Adicks, both of York, South Carolina.

We have a new girl working in the office, Miss Elizabeth Bridges, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ernest Bridges. 'Lib is just one more pretty little blonde and works at the desk with Miss Annie Sue Hoyle and Miss Mildred Miller - Fred Denton kids them and calls their desk, "Old Maids Row." They take it very good naturedly though and say that they arn't old maids until they quit a-struggling, so we guess there's still hope for them.

Mrs. Minnie Ramsaur of Charlotte, and Mrs. Mac Rollins of Shelby are spending sometime with Mr. & Mrs. C.D. Forney, Sr. Mrs. Ramsaur is Mrs. Forney's Mother.

The Town Boys (What's left of them) are planning to organize a Basket Ball Team, to have a little fun and exercise this winter. Lets wish them luck and hope they'll have an A-1 team.

(cont'd. on next page)