

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Irvin of Henderson spent the week end with Mrs. Irvin's mother, Mrs. R. H. Boyles.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rollins visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eaker in Durham over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Black of Lattimore visited Charlie Hayes and family Saturday Night. Perhaps you don't know Mrs. Black was Edna Hayes until a few weeks ago.

Rev. Suttle celebrated his 30th Anniversary as Pastor of Lawndale and New Bethel Churches the 4th Sunday in December. Rev. Noland Howington of Louisville delivered the address at both churches.

Thurman Spangler left this week to take up work at Pearl Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Wilson and family have gone to Florida.

Mrs. Junior Daggerhart and little daughter of Baltimore, Md., are spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Tol Wallace.

Mrs. Tom Fox and son of Wilmington are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Buck Southards.

Mrs. Everett Wease of Wilmington is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sadie Brackett.

Mr. B. C. (Brac) Wallace of Washington is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred Denton and other relatives here.

Defense workers back at work after visiting relatives here during the Holidays:

Robert Wallace, Wilmington, N.C.

J. D. Lowe, Roy Gold, and Junior Daggerhardt, Baltimore, Md.

Everett Howell and Brodas Beam, Light Foot, Va.

Mrs. Robert Wallace and daughter, Patsy, and Mrs. Thomas Lee, visited relatives and friends in Wilmington last week.

Mrs. Fred Falls and two sons, Dickie and Gene, have moved to Monroe so they will be with Captain Fred Falls while he is stationed there.

L. B. Champion of Chase City, Va., spent several days here, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vance Champion.