

Dear Sirs:

I received my first copy of your paper "Hot off the Hoover Rail" and was very pleased with the results it brought to me. I received the paper on Friday afternoon, and Saturday afternoon, who did I see--none other than Roy Elmore. He got his first copy Friday, too. We didn't know each other was here until we got the paper. So, we owe it to "Hot off the Hoover Rail" for our seeing each other.

The other addresses were of lots of the boys I knew personally, and I didn't know where they were. All the other news was grand. I really think it is a good paper; and I'm looking forward with pleasure for the next issue.

I want to thank each and every one of you for it. It makes you feel as if you were almost back in good old Lawndale."

Yours Sincerely

Dear Jim:

I received my first copy of "Hot off the Hoover Rail" and sure did enjoy it -- in fact I am on it my second time now; but the tough part of it is I had to sit on a hospital cot to read it, as they have me in here now. I'm feeling fine so that is something.

Well Jim there is not much I can tell you about the army as I have not got very far along yet; but I have been studing the machine gun and like it fine. The army is not so tough; but I don't think much of Kentucky. I had always heard it referred to as the blue grass state, and all I have been able to find so far is red mud.

Jim, as you know, news in the hospital is scarce; so I'll sign off for this time. Am looking forward to getting the next copy. Keep the good work up.

With best wishes, I am
Yours Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

I received my first copy of "Hot off the Hoover Rail", and I would like to express my gratitude and thanks. I'm sure things like this will be appreciated by all the boys from around Lawndale, and I'm sure they won't be forgotten.

I'm not really a part of your very nice little town, although I do feel that I am. My stay in Lawndale was a very pleasant one. I became very attached to it.

From what I see in the Cleveland Times, there is quite a lot of my old friends from around Lawndale in the service now, and all over the globe.

If they enjoyed their copy of the "Hoover Rail" as much as I did, I say, "A good job well done", to the editorial staff. Keep up the good work. The first thing to win a war is to keep up the morale of the service men and we can sooner get it over with and return home to our loved ones.

A little late but still OK. I wish you all a happy new year.
Again, I'll say, thank you very much.

Very Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

Just received my first copy of "Hot off the Hoover Rail". Thanks a million. It was very nice of you to think of a paper to send us service men. Keep up the good work; and we'll keep our chin up and sing the song "This is the army Mr. Jones."

Let me wish you all the best of luck,
