

Melba Laughlin when she was a little girl - "Mother, may I have a nickle for the old man who is outside crying?" Mrs. Laughlin- "Yes, dear, but what is the old man crying about?" Melba-"He's crying 'salty peanuts', five cents a bag."

Howard Wease to his girl- "Talking about Africa makes me think of the time ----"
Howard's girl- "Good gracious, you're quite right, I had no idea it was so late. Good-bye."

Lee Champion- "Royle, Suppose I should be taken away suddenly, what would become of you, my boy?" Royle- "I'd stay here. The question is, what would become of you?"

What about a couple of puns? "His death, which happened in his berth, at forty-odd befell; they went and told the sexton, and the sexton tolled the bell."

"Why was Robinson Crusoe's man Friday like a rooster? Because he scratched for himself and Crusoe."

"The doctor's work fills six feet of ground, but the dentist's work fills an acher."

SHELBY ROTARY CLUB HONORS JOHN F. SCHENCK SR.

John F. Schenck Sr. was made an honorary member of the Rotary Club in Shelby this past month. This signal honor was bestowed upon Mr. Schenck on the 70th anniversary of the founding of Cleveland Mill & Power Company. This company was founded in 1873, by the late Major H. F. Schenck and through the successive years, since the Major's death, death, has been headed by "Mr. John", and his sons, John Schenck Jr. and the late Hal Schenck.

We are all proud to be a part of this great organization - one that has weathered the ups and downs of so many years - one that has been in existence, since immediately after the Civil War. Seventy years is a long time, much longer than you boys can remember, but we know that wherever you are, scattered all over the world, that you, too, are proud of this ageless institution and will be happy when the time comes to return to our village with its busy hum of braiders and spindles.

All four of Mr. Schenck's sons have held Rotary membership - John, having been the first president of the club, and Jean, having just completed last year as its head. Dr. Sam is also an outstanding member and the late Hal Schenck was also an active member - so the Rotarians decided on the occasion of the Company's anniversary to honor Mr. Schenck as its second honorary member, the Rev. J. W. Suttle, being the first and only other honorary member of the club.

The Hoover Rail Staff, joined by all Lawndale and our boys in service, offer Mr. Schenck our congratulations upon this personal tribute and also upon the 70th anniversary of Cleveland Mill & Power Company.
