

OLD MAIDS ROW

By

Mildred Brackett, "Lib" Bridges and Anne Sue Hoyle

Just what has become of Eddie Wease? We haven't heard anything from him lately, and we're wondering if he has followed some negro "mammy" that was carrying a suitcase to the wrong destination. As you know, when Eddie was stationed at Columbia, S.C., he didn't know where the bus station was. When he got a week-end off and started home he just happened to see a negro woman, carrying a suitcase, and followed right behind her and sure enough she took him right to the bus station. Perhaps that isn't such a bad idea for some of you when you don't know the town!!

Gee whilikers, we have lived this long and just now learned the difference between Vision and Sight. Foy Southards and "Bardy" Hunt were double-dating the other night and "Bardy's" girl was a Vision and Foy's was a Sight. (Anne said that wasn't her that was dating Foy that night).

There is no need to tell you how scarce things are these days but we think it is the limit when two people buy one pair of glasses and take it day about wearing them. Two colored people actually did that here in Lawndale, and even Royle Champion borrowed his daddy's glasses the other night to wear to the show. Royle is here on a furlough now and he really looks "fit to kill" in that Navy uniform.

Betty Jo Eaker has finished her business course at King's Business College and accepted work in Shelby. We know that Jack Wilson is thrilled to hear this news and to know that she will be close home now.

Dwight Hord came home for a few days about two weeks ago and his sister gave him a party. It seems that all of you shall be well entertained when you do come back to see us because we are glad to see you any time.

Piedmont still holds top honors in winning basketball games. The other night they played Belwood and won both games. The girls played such a good game and beat Belwood so bad that it wasn't even interesting. The boys also won but it was such a tight game that we didn't know that we had a seat because we were on our feet most of the time yelling, screaming, and cussing. The game was plenty fast and furious. Ruth Anthony is still a loyal fan for Piedmont and if you doubt that one bit, you should have been there and heard some of the things that she said.

Most of you remember Mildred Eaker on the team, don't you? Well, it seems that Vivian, her sister, is following right in her footsteps, when it comes down to playing real ball. You should have seen her last Tuesday night when they played Shelby All-Stars. That gal was really putting them in. Jack Eskridge and Harvey Bowens were really "on" the other night up at Belwood cause they dropped the last two in that brought us victory. We are planning on going "way back in the hills" Friday night and play Casar and here's hoping those girls will really win that game because their former coach, Mr. Dodd, is Casar's Coach this year.

So long until the next game comes off and then we'll be seeing you. Our one prayer is that everything is soon going to be all right and you will be here to join in the fun with us.