

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Pvt. Bob Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Pearson spent a 9 day furlough here during January. Bob had as his guest, Pvt. Gene O'Neal of Houston, Texas. Both the boys seemed to be enjoying loafing around and seeing friends. At the expiration of their furlough they reported to Camp Clochete, Ia.

Cpl. Delbert Williams of Camp Gordon, Ga. recently spent a 10 day furlough with his sister, Mrs. Velius Bivins and Mr. Bivins. Delbert has seen quite a bit of overseas service in the Carribean Area and was wearing all kinds of ribbons etc. He reported to Ft. Meade, Md. after his furlough.

Everett Wease, S/2c spent the week end of Feb. 10th with his wife and also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wease. Everett has just completed Boot-training at Bainbridge, Md. and we know just how much he enjoyed getting home and having some good home cooking. He has now been assigned to Boston, Mass. and Leona is making plans to become a "Bostonian" for awhile anyway.

Bus Wright of the Navy, was here recently for a 10 day leave with his wife and family. Bus certainly looked hale and hearty and had many interesting things to tell according to Jim Osborne.

Sgt. Harold Bridges evidently found a "Rabbits foot" rather recently - cause he's had the grand luck of being transferred to Ft. Jackson, S. C. from Ft. Sill, Okla. He and his wife and their cute youngster have been home several times recently, much to the delight of E. D. Bridges and family - And as if his transfer wasn't enough luck for any one boy, his Dad bought him an automobile, so that now Harold is really the "fair-haired child of Lawndale."

Pvt. Gene Wease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wease was home this past month for a 5 day furlough. Gene looked grand and from all reports had a grand time while home. He reported back to Ft. Jackson, S. C. Another lucky G. I.
