no regrets when we have finished. It matters little where we finish, or when we finish but the important thing is how we finish. Some of our boys are finishing in prision camps of the enemy, some meet their finish at sea, and far too many come to an end on foreign soil. Jesus Christ was whipped, he was beaten, scourged, spit upon, ridiculed, criticized, lied upon and finally crusified. All the forces of evil combined were defeated by Christ. When he was in the wilderness with the Devil, undergoing awful temptation, he was hungry, cold, tired, and wet, even as many of you are today, but thank God He never quit, He finished. The plan of redemption is a finished plan. Trust his promise, believe in Him, accept Him as your Personal Savior, and may we, boys, all of us, be able to say with the Apostle Paul, "I have Finished my course, I have kept the Faith. May God bless you all, is my prayer.

BY BOB HAWK

Bob Hawk, genial quizmaster of the program, "Thanks to the Yanks", a show sponsored by the makers of Camel cigaretts, has been kind enough to include us in a series of "Hawkwiz" for publication each month.

These questions are similar to the ones used on his popular broadcast each Monday Night over C.B.S. We hope you fellers will enjoy this new feature and join us in "Thanks to the Yanks".

- 1. What is the origin of the expression "By hook or by crook?"
- 2. Under what circumstances is it correct to say "My teacher and friend was there to help me?"
- 3. Did the word trousseau originally mean a small bundle or lavish trunkfuls of the bride's linens and personal clothes?
- 4. Which has more to do with sheerness in a stocking; the gauge or the denier?
- 5. A person can be sued for defamation of the character of a living person. Could he be sued for the defamation of a person no longer living?

(The answers to the "HAWKWIZ" questions will be found on the reverse side of Old Maids Row.)
