

SEEN AROUND TOWN
By
Mrs. Arthur Parker
(Miss Effie)

MRS. HENRY CLONINGER sending a birthday cake to GENE, stationed at Camp Howze, Texas — MRS. W. D. WESSON sending flowers to her sick neighbors and friends — The girls in the packing room slipping birthday parties on "KAT" LEE, JENNIE LOU WALLACE, & MAE WILLIAMS — EMMA WHISNANT using high power salesmanship selling postal cards — ALEX WEASE telling jokes on HAL BOWMAN — EMITT NORMAN showing the boys that he can walk a straight line on Fridays and Saturdays — SUMMIE EAKER always ready to laugh at the jokes heard around the store at changing time — DORIS OSBORNE and BERT BRACKETT talking over church affairs — GRADY & ARLEE DAVIS courting in the packing room — MRS. OPHUS HUNT taking kodak pictures of the new busses and drivers to send BREVARD — JERRY CALDWELL eating home made candy, wonder where he got it — MON BRACKETT going to the mill from the store with his supper, an onion — MRS. PAUL MCMURRY thrilled over a letter from PAUL'S Chaplain — All the good smelling powders and perfumes some of the girls are beginning to get from France — BELLE GANTT taking care of her money with a big safety pin — MRS. BOYLES and MRS. WILLIS grinning over their new grand-sons — ROY GOLD learning to sing lullabys — "GOOFY GINK" is going to start a singing school to teach the makers of bee gums the art of singing lullabys — TRAVIS BRACKETT walking down the street to work looking like a lawyer — HENRY CLONINGER wanting to meet a fair lady that works in the card-room — MR. JOHN SCHENCK JR. not recognizing PEARL SWEETZY'S figure under the yarn table in the packing-room — JESSLYN BRIDGES is more ready to smile now that she is getting letters from IKE — HELEN WALKER hearing a plane hoped if it was L.R. CLIFF WALLACE, who is learning to fly, that he would fly over his own house instead of hers — JOHN WHISNANT attempting to role a cigarette, it tore up before he could light it, he now smokes a corn cob pipe — Little ELIZABETH WEASE doing her part on the home front by saving and returning to the store all their empty paper sacks — One way to get out of milking a cow is to do as ODUS ROYSTER did, sell her — RAYMOND WARLICK looking for a cap with ear muffs, getting ready to do some early spring ploughing — LOISE WALLACE MCRORIE has returned from a two weeks stay in Miami, Fla., with her husband, SGT. MCRORIE who is an engineer gunner on a Flying Fortress — MR. JOHN SCHENCK JR. with his head in the clouds since hearing that his son, LT. SCHENCK has arrived back in the States — The post office lobby filled at every mail with folks anxious to hear from their folks in camp and overseas — Everyone showing the nice Christmas Card they received from EDDIE WEASE who is some where in France — MAURICE BOWMAN told me he could tell me lots of news for this page, BUT if published we might both get shot — Was JIM OSBORNE'S face red when he returned to his desk recently and found a big silver plate from a casket, which read, "AT REST" — ANNIE SUE HOYLE very sad in the face when "KAT" PRITCHARD accidentally sat on her lap one night on HUNT'S bus — The Office Force turning out when an airplane flew over — The stampede in the Company Store when word got around that there were 51 gauge hose to be had — J. B. BRACKETT raising the Flag over the Mill.

HAVE YOUR CORRECT ADDRESS