All the children are looking forward to Easter with the egg hunts and fights --- "DOODLE" LAUGHLIN recently received a letter from THURMAN who is somewhere in France enclosed was a letter written in French. THURMAN told his Dad if he couldn't read it for him to get ALEX WEASE to help him. HAL BOWMAN remarked that if ALEX had a couple of drinks, he would be able to read any language --- EUGENE JONES recently married, and, like most newley weds, was bragging about how smart his wife is in the house and yard, as well. ESPER MCNEILLY listened awhile and when he got to the yard part told him that after awhile he would have something else running around the yard beside the fence --- MR JOHN EAKER building a new chicken house --- EZMA BEAM getting the thrill of a life time getting to go back with BRODUS to California --- MAURICE BOWMAN wears his hat lots - SUMMIE EAKER told him that folks could still see he is bald headed --- NED WILLIAMS and SEAL JEFFRES having RUBY WHISNANT in the COMPANY STORE looking every where for bridge cards - PARKER told RUBY to just let them have a deck of "poker cards. JERRY CALDWELL buying two rolls of poultry wire to fence in 4 bantam hens and one rooster to keep them off of "DOODLE" LAUGHLIN'S garden --- BETTY JOE EAKER WILSON beaming happily because her husband, PVT. JACK WILSON, of Fort Jackson, was able to be out of the hospital and home for a week-end --- PVT. MARY E. MORRISON ("ROCKIE") stating that her new G.I. shoes would fit SUMMIE EAKER --- PATSY MAUNEY, MARLENE, and ANITA CANIPE, giggling in church because their grand mother, MRS. EVA MAUNEY, had fetched along the Almanac, which was the same size and color of her Sunday School Quarterly --- MRS. HAL BOWMAN on her way to Shelby with her brood, JOE ANN, JIMMIE, and MICHAEL, to buy new Easter clothes --- MRS. DWIGHT LEE pushing her son, DICKIE, in his brand new stroller - "GRANDPAPPY" TOM LATTIMORE presented it to him --- JAKIE FORTENBERRY grinning from ear to ear over his new grand son, DONALD WEST, son of ROY and BONITA WEST --- PEARL SWEEZY, CARRIE LEE WEAVER, and JENNIE LOU WALLACE, on their way to Spartanburg - Wonder if PEARL had as much fun in Spartanburg as she had in Richmond --- MRS. HERMAN GRIGG and MRS. BUFORD HORD sending flower plants to their friends --- MRS. BREVARD WESSON on her way to the Beauty Shop to get all prettied up before her husband, CHIEF PETTY OFFICER BREVARD WESSON, comes home --- MRS. VANGIE NORMAN, a very enthusiastic ball fan, went to a game the other night and became so excited that she wasn't able to work for two days. --- MR. CHARLIE FORTENBERRY proudly displaying a coconut that his son, CPL. HARVEY FORTENBERRY, sent him from somewhere in the Pacific --- BETTY LOU BOWMAN on roller skates going to MRS. FRANK CLINE'S for milk - Wonder how much milk w as left by the time she got back home --- "MAG" PRICE and MAIE WILLIAMS eating a big luscious looking candy bar (which is a rare treat in these parts) - Who told us you two were on a diet? --- MRS. FLORENCE LACKEY shopping for a new hat --- MRS. GEORGE HART all a flutter like a school girl with her first date because her son, S/SGT. GEORGE HART, JR., has arrived back in the states --- PHYLLIS RICHARDS asking her mother, EDITH RICHARDS, if isolation didn't mean being frozen to death --- CHARLIE WEASE telling about his
