

"HAWKWIZ"

BY BOB HAWK

1. Is there a world standard for threads on screws?
2. When was the typewriter put on the market: nearer 1850, 1875, or 1900?
3. You know that white bread sold today is market enriched. What must be added to the flour before the bread can be labeled enriched?
4. Why are penny box matches sent overseas and kitchen matches kept for civilian use?
5. What musical instrument has its music written an octave higher than it sounds?
6. Were there more marriages or fewer marriages in the United States in 1944, than there were in 1943?
7. Is the North Pole the coldest spot on earth?
8. What is the difference between c-a-d-d-y and c-a-d-d-i-e?
9. When the three little kittens found their mittens, what did they have to eat?
10. Which can carry more weight in proportion to its own weight: a bicycle or a horse?

(The answers to the "HAWKWIZ" questions will be found on the reverse side of this page.)

* * * * *

Staff Sgt. Spurling Is Cited In England

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England — For "meritorious achievement" in aerial combat, Staff Sgt. W. B. Spurling, 25, B-17 Flying Fortress waist gunner from Route 3, Lawndale, N. C., has been awarded a fourth Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal.

Overseas seven months, Sgt. Spurling has completed 35 missions with the 381st Bombardment Group to date. He won his gunners wings Feb. 7, 1944, at Kingman, Ariz.

The airman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Spurling, sr., and is married to the former Miss Myrtle Pritchard, of Spindale, N. C. His wife and two-year-old daughter, Shirley, now live with his parents.

W. B. having completed his missions, has been returned to the States — His parents have received a telegram from him to that effect and are anxiously looking forward to his arriving home.

Congratulations, W. B. — The Hoover Rail Gang is proud of you!!!

* * * * *

South Pacific GI: "Why are you staring at me like that?"
Cannibal: "I'm the food inspector."