IVESTER - CORDELL

In a lovely home ceremony performed Saturday at high noon at the home of the bride's parents on Grover street, Shelby, Miss Frances Rollins Cordell became the bride of Morgan Lee Ivester.

Rev. W. A. Rollins, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of the immediate families.

Vows were spoken in the living room before a background of fern and candelabra holding slender white tapers: The mantel was arranged with mixed white flowers.

Bill Bridges, son of Pvt. and Mrs. Ivo Bridges and nephew of the bride lighted the candles at the ceremony hour.

The wedding musicians were Mrs. Jack Wilson, pianist and cousin of the bride who played the traditional wedding music and also accompanied Miss Velna Ivester, the vocalist.

Mrs. Ivester is the grand-daughter of Mrs. F. C. Rollins of Lawndale. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cordell, was educated at Shelby High School and Elon college. She has been employed at Moore and Stewart.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ivester of near Lawndale. Since his discharge from the army he has been operating a store near Lawndale.

The bride and groom are both well known in Lawndale and have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy wedded life.
