

ful at the expense of his justice. This has been proven over and over again across the centuries. Every epoch or dispensation of time has started with God's blessing and favor and ends up with his wrath and judgment on the wicked or those that do not believe as is pointed out so plain in our text.

Beloved there is in the final analysis only two classes of people. The ones that do believe in Christ Jesus as their Saviour, and peace and blessing and joy and life eternal is their reward. And those who do not believe, and they have nothing to look to in the future but the judgment and wrath of God.

In Revelation, 6th chapter, 17th verse. For the great day of his wrath is come and who shall be able to stand. Beloved, wherever you are, accept Christ as your personal Saviour. Trust him and live for him and we shall be saved from wrath to come according to the record.
