

JIVIN' ON THE DOWN BEAT

By--Patty Osborne

Hi, Fellows, anybody got a nickel in the crowd? There's some swell tunes on the Juke Box this month, so hurry up Joe and drop a slug in the slot. Hold everything boys, the platter to come up is:

1. INTO EACH LIFE SOME RAIN MUST FALL ...Here's one that's stayed on the juke boxes for quite some time, because it's the type of tune that the more you hear it - the more you want to hear it. Ella Fitzgerald and the Inkspots really do a neat job on this number. "Into each life some rain must fall, but too much has fallen in mine - into each heart, some tears must fall, but some day the sun will shine". Very nice. (Incidentally, this number rates tops with Polly Carpenter - one of the Hoover Rail Staff.)
2. CANDY ... the top tune of the day. Sweet melody and cute words, yum, yummmmm, yummm. Johnny Mercer has a swell arrangement, and he does the vocal up brown, too!! "Candy, I call my Sugar, Candy, because I'm sweet on Candy, and Candy's sweet on me." Strictly in the groove.
3. ROBIN HOOD ... Super duper for Rug Cutters. Sho-nuff cookin' with gas. The story of Robin Hood (natch) is done up neatly by Tony Pastor. "Many long years ago a fellow named Robin Hood, - he used to rob the rich most every chance he could."
4. I'LL SEE YOU IN MY DREAMS ... Although this is an oldie it has been revived in the M.G.M. picture, "Keep Your Powder Dry". Maybe the words express your feelings, anyhow! I know the sentiment speaks for your girls back home. "I'll see you in my dreams, hold you in my dreams. Someone took you out of my Arms, Still I feel the thrill of your charms - Lips that once were mine."
5. RUM AND COCA-COLA ... Yep!! it's still on top, the song was supposed to be banned, but somehow it slipped by the censors. Another kinda' unusual fact is, that it was written fifteen years ago, seems that it takes a little age to ripen a tune sometime. "Drinking Rum and Coca-Cola - Go down Point-Koo-Mah-Nah, Both Mother and Daughter working for the Yankee Dollar."
6. I DON'T WANT TO LOVE YOU ... Phil Brito does a smooth recording of this number. It's really a swell song, one of my favorites. "I don't want to love you, Please don't make me care - This heart of mine is leading me nowhere."
7. GOODNIGHT, SWEET DREAMS ... Another oldie that has been revived much to the pleasure of all those millions of couples who feel "that way" about each other, and we can all dream, can't we? "Goodnight, Sweet Dreams, tomorrows another day, til' then, sweet dreams, Sweetheart."

Well Fellows, I bet everybody is fresh out of nickels, save 'em up and meet me same place, same time, next month. So long and keep singin'!

S'ever,

Patty.
