

SEEN AND HEARD AROUND TOWN

Now that the "Crooked Cross" of Germany has been smashed, we are looking forward to the setting of the "Rising Sun" of Japan and when that happens and all you boys get home, what a happy reunion we will have. --- MRS. LUS LEE came in so happy to show us a telegram she had received from her son MURREL, who has been in the South Pacific almost forty months. We quote the telegram, "Its a long stretch from no man's land back to you, but I made it." --- MR. & MRS. ODUS ROYSTER were made very happy over the arrival of their son, HARRY, who has been serving for several months in New Guinea and Australia. --- Speaking of happy people, MR. & MRS. GEORGE HART are all up in the clouds over the arrival of a granddaughter, little VIRGINIA LEE, daughter of LT. & MRS. CARTWRIGHT HART. VIRGINIA has the distinction of being the first girl born in the HART family in twenty years --- GERALDINE WALLACE playing nurse maid to her Dad's flock of baby chickens --- ELIZABETH BRIDGES drinking a quart of milk a day. Wonder who likes a perfect 18? --- MRS WILL FOX back from a long visit to see her sons EDWARD in Waycross, Ga., and JOE, stationed at Jacksonville, Fla. --- MR. CLIFF WALLACE wanting to buy a plane, but he can't find a place in Lawndale big enough to "set" it down --- MRS. EVA MAUNEY receiving a Mother's Day Cablegram from her son-in-law, CPL. DEWEY CANIPE, who is in Germany. --- MRS. MAURICE HORD watching MRS. HERMAN GRIGG set out flower plants --- "BLOSSOM", small daughter of NEB and SEDELLE GRIGG was watching her mother remove a hen and chickens from a nest. "BLOSSOM" exclaimed, "That hen sure can lay "dibs." --- W.A. PEELER presenting his Scout Master JOHN SHUFORD a picture of himself made in Scout uniform --- MRS. W.D. WESSON and MRS. BUFORD HORD chatting in front of the Post Office --- BOYCE TURNER telling the boys a joke --- FLAY COOK looking forward to the summer holidays --- All of us being so glad to see LUCIE HEFFNER LEAK, LUCIE now lives in Salisbury --- CALLIE WHITENER proudly showing off her baby niece --- ALEX WEASE out of cigarettes --- ORA BRACKETT talking it over with RAY WESSON, JR. --- MARIE WEASE strutting down the street --- JIM OSBORNE busy getting the window fixed for the souvenirs you boys are sending home --- LITTLE FREDDIE DENTON hunting through the store for the things he likes to eat --- MRS. OPHUS HUNT very pleased over getting a letter from CPL. JENTRY MILLS, a friend of BREVARD. CPL. MILLS arrived in Williamston, N.C., March 24th from Germany --- "DOODLE" Laughlin buying brilliantine, he declares its not to help his looks. We haven't heard of MRS. LAUGHLIN being sick, so we will have to take his word for it --- JIM LATTIMORE nursing a sore finger, hurt playing soft ball --- T.S. PUTMAN looking for overalls to do his "home work" in --- LITTLE KAY SHEHAN, small daughter of WISHER & ELIZABETH SHEHAN, became very tired at a recent entertainment, and to the amusement of the children and embarrassment of her mother, she began shouting, "Amen - A men." --- MRS. HERBERT HAAG off to Charlotte to visit friends --- The rush of the mothers trying to find material to make evening dresses for their children ---
