

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Captain Fred Click and Pfc. Graham Click, brothers of Mrs. Laxton Mauney recently spent several days at her home. Graham arrived in New York on VE Day from an English hospital. He wears the Good Conduct Medal and the Infantry-man's badge, the Purple Heart, and the European Ribbon with four stars, the Silver Star and also the Presidential Citation ribbon. Whee— Graham, thats a lotta' "fruit salad" for one G.I. We're proud of you and know that Ella is too.

At the end of his leave, Graham reported back to McGuire Hospital in Richmond, Va. The writer failed to learn where Capt. Fred is stationed etc., but we know those Clicks really "clicked" when they all got together.

Sgt. Murrel Lee and his bride spent several days here recently as guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luss Lee. They were enroute from Miami, Fla. to Ft. Monroe, Va. where he will be stationed after serving 39 months in the Pacific Theatre. Murrel looked fit-as-a-fiddle after two weeks of good ole' Miami Sun - said he liked it down there very much and didn't mind the heat after being in the real tropics for so long.

Max Greene S 2/c of Cecil Field, Jacksonville, Fla. was here this past month for a leave of several days with his wife and young daughter. Max is one of a large service family, having 5 brothers and sisters in the armed forces. Max' little girl is a darling and she thinks her Daddy is about the grandest sailor in the fleet.

S/Sgt. Forrest Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Carter has returned to Oliver General Hospital in Augusta, Ga. after spending a 30 day furlough with them and his wife. Forrest was wounded in Germany on the day that the German Army surrendered, but is now getting along fine and hopes to be out of the hospital before too long.

Pvt. James Towery was home recently for a 10 day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Towery and with his wife and children. Jim seemed to be having a nice time loafing around town and watching the checker games, which are always in progress on the Hoover Rail. He has now reported back to Ft. Bragg, N. C.

Joe Fox, ACMM and his wife, the former Miss Deaver of Mooresboro, were here this past month, as guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fox. Joe and his wife were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns one night and also of Mr. and Mrs. Ferree of Gaffney, S. C. Look out Joe, or you'll lose that figure of yours, on so much Carolina fried chicken.

Pvt. Foy Southards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burg Southards arrived in the States this past month and was sent to Oliver General Hospital in Augusta, Ga. He is now at home on a 30 day furlough, much to the delight of his parents and also a certain little blonde, well heck, its no secret, none other

IT'S UP TO US NOW
