

EWN SPACE EXPANSION UNDER WAY

We regret that we are among the last of the few that haven't contributed to the Piedmont, however, we will try to give out with a little info from the land of enchanting waters.

Presently we have three agents and a service attendant representing PAI here. Charles Field, manager and recently of ROA, Marvin Mills, our new recruit, and a local boy, Wesley Civils, the service attendant, and myself (Casey).

The facilities here are in progress of expansion. The CAA has a new building and they plan to move into it in a month or so, leaving their old space to be divided into more lobby space and more room for NAL and PAI.

Aside from aviation our local interests are fishing, boating and the Airport softball team which doesn't have an impressive won-lost record, but we have a lot of fun.

Would like to have any of you come by for a visit at any time and will try to keep a little information in the paper from time to time. . . . Casey

ENGINE SHOP BACHELORS GIVE UP

There are no more bachelors in the INT Engine Shop.

Closing the fixed base division for vacations served several purposes, Red Willard, charge of engine overhaul said. For some it was travel, others just rested and for the only two remaining bachelors, it was matrimony.

Congratulations are in order for James M. Johnston who was married to Peggy Sprinkle on July 5th and Harry Jewel Mabe who was married to Ruth Morrell on June 27th.

BACHELOR - A man who has lost the opportunity of making some woman miserable.

THE PURSER

When things are all late and the weather is rough,
Who takes all the ragging and takes all the stuff?
The purser.

When someone gets sick and throws it on the floor
Who cleans it up, but never get sore?
The purser.

When the IOI form is wrong and the off-load slip is, too
Who runs around like mad doing everything he can do?
The purser.

When a pouch is not pulled because of an agent's game
Who (though not responsible) is it that gets the blame?
The purser.

When a good charter trip comes up - say a sunny trip down South
Who is it that gets to take it without even opening his mouth?
The CHIEF PURSER

EMPLOYEES URGED TO SUPPORT SAVINGS BOND PROGRAM

Have you been supporting your country lately - financially, that is? If not, why don't you do so by buying United States Savings Bonds through the payroll savings plan? T. W. Morton, Accounting, will be glad to "fix you up." Why don't you come by to see him or drop him a line? You'll be glad you did.

CHANGES AFFECTING PERSONNEL NEEDED FOR RECORDS

Have you had a recent change in address, change of name due to marriage, or any other change which might affect your personnel records that has not been reported to Accounting? If so, these changes should be reported as soon as possible to C.H. Wood, in order that your records may be kept up-to-date.
