ONE FOR YOU and one for me, say Yvonne Riggs and Buddy Kitchen winners of the Bike Treasure Hunts. Yvonne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Riggs, INT Engine Shop; Buddy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kitchen, INT Dispatch.

THE OLD airport at Winston-Salem as it looked twenty years ago is really a contrast to the modern terminal there today. But the photo is a fitting reminder of how far aviation has come in the entire Piedmont area through the dedicated efforts of President T. H. Davis and all who are celebrating this 20th Anniversary of Piedmont Aviation.

AND THE NEW airport at Washington, christened Dulles International, is rapidly taking shape. Although the photo above is of a scale model and not of the completed Dulles Airport, construction of the runways has already begun and operations should begin in early 1961.

RECENT DISPLAY at Lexington featured Piedmont with a travel theme with appropriate travel clothes, and of course, a ticket for a Piedmont flight tucked into a new summer handbag. The display was arranged by Virginia Black of the Lexington station.
