

GREETINGS are given by Gov. J. Lindsey Almond to Forrest Shelton, Captain of the first flight to land at Preston Glenn Airport after the dedication ceremonies. Looking on are (left to right): Lynchburg Mayor W. C. Vaughan, President T. H. Davis, and W. Calvin Falwell, Chairman of the LYH Chamber of Commerce's Aviation Committee.

NEW JET DEBUTS. An artist's concept presents three views of the new Boeing 727 short-range jetliner. The three-engine jet will be capable of carrying from 70 to 114 passengers at speeds up to 600 miles an hour. The 727 will have a range of from 150 to 1,700 miles. Eastern and United Airlines have placed orders for 40 727's each. The combined orders, totalling $350,000,000, are believed to be the largest in the history of the transportation industry.

GATHERED FOR DEDICATION DAY for Lynchburg's new terminal December 16 were (left to right): Division Station Supervisor Ed Best, W. Calvin Falwell, President T. H. Davis, and Virginia Governor J. Lindsey Almond. The day's events, sponsored by the Aviation Committee of the LYH Chamber of Commerce, included an open house and luncheon for area's aviation and Chamber of Commerce representatives.
