

Another pert bevy of Stewardesses has taken wings. At the pinning ceremony with President T. H. Davis and Vice President C. G. Brown are (left to right) Marcella Shackleford, Carolyn Ward, Wanda Lee Terry, and Jennie Lou Bryan.

Hootenanny, anyone? This trio would be just the ones to start it. It's Peter, Paul and Mary, photographed on their arrival at Raleigh-Durham. The tuneful threesome were singing at a folk gathering in the area.

It's the Royal Order of the Flying Orchid for Mrs. Jane Callahan of the LYH Babcock and Wilcox Co., Atomic Energy Division. LYH Manager C. R. Blackmon (right) and Robert Coggin of Delta present Mrs. Callahan with a plaque "... in recognition of her contribution to the development and growth of air travel." Mrs. Callahan handles the commercial ticket account at her company. Other women receiving the orchid have been Mrs. Frances Knight of the U. S. Passport Bureau and Mrs. Edith Ridgeway, travel chief for the Pentagon.

PIEDMONITOR

PIX

Singing star Jane Powell receives shelter from the elements via an umbrella wielded by Agent Neal Wray. Miss Powell had just arrived at the Roanoke airport and was in the area to fill a singing engagement.

American Airlines in Atlanta gave Piedmont a birthday party to celebrate the company's 16th anniversary February 20. Joining in the festivities were (left to right) Manager Bruce Parrish, District Sales Manager Don Edmondson, and American District Sales Manager Andrew "Bud" Simpson.