

Piedmont's own celebrity, Judy Hurlburt, represented the airlines as "Miss Piedmont." Here she is met by Mayor O. O. Allsbrook and Mr. Stanly Rheder, president of the 1965 Azalea Festival held in Wilmington, N. C.

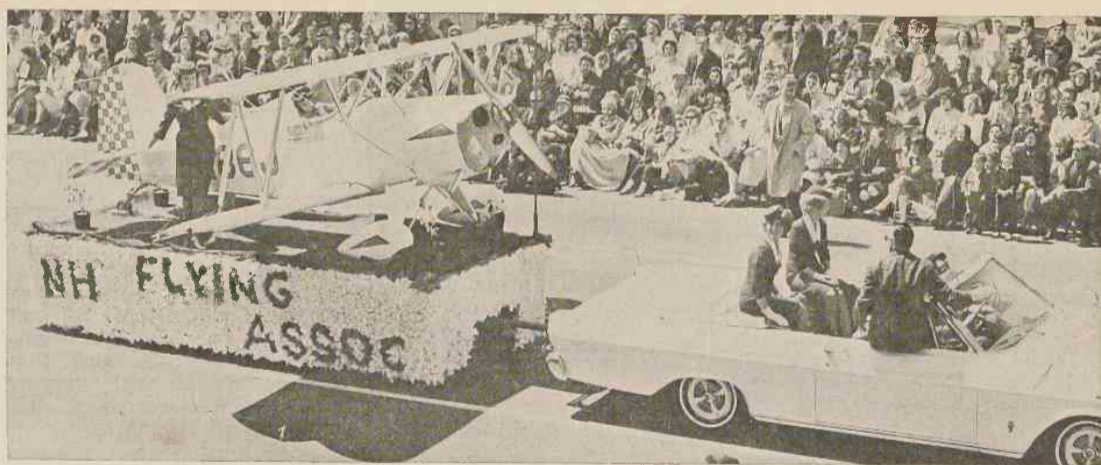

Queen Azalea XVIII, Patricia Blair, wife of Daniel Boone in the Daniel Boone T. V. series (NBC), is shown leaving with her husband, Martin Colbert (lower left), aboard PI Flight 105.

Darby Hinton and his mother arrive on PI Flight 63 from Baltimore. Darby plays "Israel", son of Daniel Boone, in the T. V. series.

AZALEA - 1965

Celebrities fly Piedmont

Piedmont stewardesses DORRIS HARDISON, JUDY CANADY (on float), NANCY ROWLAND and NANCY VAUGHT (in car) adorn the New Hanover County Flying Association's float. The plane was built at home by a local doctor, J. O. Perritt.

Another member of the Daniel Boone cast is Ed Ames who plays the faithful Indian, Mingo. Left to right are Ed Ames, former County Commissioner, J. V. Mettes, and City Council woman, Mrs. Hannah Block.

Kiriaki Tsopel, Miss Universe 1965, arrives aboard Flight 802. She departed on Flight 63.