

ONE OF THIRTY-EIGHT — She didn't catch this 300-pound blue marlin, one of 38 caught off the Outer Banks this season, but Sherrri Gillenwater seemed intrigued with the whopper when she got a close up view of it on the docks at Oregon Inlet. Sherrri is a stewardess based at ORF.

A CHEVROLET CHARTER? — A Charleston group of Chevrolet Motor Dealers makes an annual trip on Piedmont to CVG. They are shown here before taking off on their 1966 excursion.

Piedmonitor

Pix

STARTING FOR VIET NAM ON PIEDMONT — Miss Janner Hart of Charleston left her hometown recently for Viet Nam where she will direct recreational activities for patients in a new military hospital. A Red Cross volunteer, Miss Hart was presented a PAI flight bag by CRW agent W. F. Hanson as she departed.

NEW GROUP JOINS RANKS — The latest group of girls to grace our aisles are, from left, Phyllis Garvin, Barbara Taylor, Jane Hux, Melba Black, Suzanne Herr, Bari Short, Teresa McMahan and Gloria Walker. Seated are Patricia Burke and Jane Davidowski.