

BEST OF INDUSTRY AWARD is received by President Davis from Dr. Joseph H. Taggart, Chairman of the Independent Board of Judges of Financial World Magazine. The award to Piedmont Aviation, Inc. was for the second best 1966 Annual Report to shareholders in the airline division for companies with revenues under $125 million.

IT WAS SOME ANNIVERSARY celebration as held by WMAL-TV in Washington. And no party is complete without the presence of Piedmont's DCA DSM Bud Halsey who is shown here with one of the hostesses Marty Orban.

PIEDMONT'S FIRST Boeing 737 forward fuselage is shown here taking shape at Boeing's Wichita division. Since this picture was taken both this section and the rear fuselage half have been shipped to the Seattle production site for assembly. This airplane, the first of Piedmont's six jets on order has been rescheduled for delivery in May of next year. For details see story on page one.

MIRROR, MIRROR on the wall reflects the latest group of Piedmont stewardesses from left, Janice Ramsey, Pamela Horton, Vivian Benson, Judy Odham, Elizabeth Farson, Karen Thore, Mary Louise MacRae, Jane Newman and Judy Dressler. All the girls were off and flying by October 23rd.
