THE NEWEST MEMBER of the very exclusive 30 year club of Piedmont employees is Eddie Culler who is the Service Manager of Fixed Base. His induction came at the last service pin luncheon when President Davis presented him with the three diamond lapel pin.

WHAT BETTER WAY to promote Piedmontland as golfer's land than to have our own men on the links mingle with others who frequent the World's Greatest Greens? That is just what Carroll Gambill, at left, and Sherl Folger were up to as they played the most famous course of all at St. Andrews, Scotland in conjunction with a promotion by BOAC. The tammed twosome is shown here in front of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club on the old course at St. Andrews.

PIEDMONT GOT A LOT of publicity out west when Wilmington's Post No. 10 Legion baseball team went to Oregon for the National Championship Playoffs. They started and ended their journey via Piedmont and in between placed fourth out of 3,100 Legion teams.

FOR 20 YEARS of working with Piedmont's flight crews Director-Flight Services Harold Warner doesn't seem to have aged too much. He received his pin from Mr. Davis at the last luncheon held at the home office.
