Piedmonitor Pix

THE TWENTY-FIVE YEAR CLUB of Piedmont acquired another member at the last service pin luncheon. Chief Dispatcher John Lewis, at left, was welcomed to that exclusive group by President T. H. Davis.

MAKING A CONTEST out of a contest wouldn't be at all difficult in the case of this picture. (How many points of irony can you count?) Shown here are Piedmont Assistant Vice President — Sales Sherl Folger, at right, and Braniff's Atlanta District Sales Manager Jim Rice as they drew to determine the winner in the recent Braniff Inter-line Hawaiian Holiday contest. First prize winner was Don Edmondson, Piedmont's Atlanta District Sales Manager, who "seems" to be looking down at the drawing. Edmonding down at the drawing. Edmondson won first class positive space passes for he and his wife to Honolulu as well as a week's accomdations and several sightseeing tours. Second place winner was Wilmington Agent Steve Willetts. His prize was two round trip tickets, via Braniff of course, to Honolulu. Third prize, the same as second, was won by Lewis Horn. Central was won by Lewis Horn, Central Res Agent in Winston-Salem.

HELPING TO INCREASE Piedmont's boardings at Southern Pines is the Shearwood Travel Agency which Shearwood Travel Agency which recently re-opened under new ownership. Shown here on that occasion are SOP Manager Horace Bryant, Vice President Bill McGee, owner Voit Gilmore, Agent J. D. Singleton, Assistant Vice President Sherl Folger and owner Dick Anderson derson.
