Cram

Sunnie Cram, Marketing, INT, received a Volunteer Activist Award during National Volunteer Week, April 27-May 3. She was recognized for citizen participation for her efforts in organizing two Thanksgiving food drives at Piedmont which provided food for 857 people. The award is sponsored by the Voluntary Action Center.

Robert Reagan, retired employee, INT, was one of 110 Winston-Salem residents who visited Peine, Germany, in April as part of an exchange program sponsored by Friendship Force, a national non-profit organization. During the same two weeks, 71 Germans, residents of Peine, stayed in Winston-Salem homes.

Ray Welch, Personnel, INT, has received a lifetime membership from the N.C. chapter of the Distributive Education Club of America.

Looking for a model of Piedmont's 737?

Richard Jeffords, first officer, INT, is selling hand molded models of Piedmont aircraft as well as models of the aircraft of other airlines.

Jeffords has in stock Piedmont's 737 in six-inch and 12-inch models at a cost of $21.95 plus $1.00 postage for the smaller version and $59.95 plus $1.75 postage for the 12-inch. He also has a nine-inch model of the 727 for $24.95 plus $1.00 postage.

To order a model or for more information write Jeffords at P.O. Box 4361, Winston-Salem, NC 27105 or mail code H210, INT.

Allow two weeks for delivery of Piedmont models and 12 weeks for special orders.

Freddie Masencup, Planning, INT, has been elected president of the Winston-Salem Business and Professional Women's Club. She took office June 1.

A catalog listing items for sale with the Piedmont logo will be available beginning this summer, thanks to Carelines.

A spiral or looseleaf binder will be sent from Carelines to each department and station with photos and prices of items ranging from golf shirts, windbreakers, and garment bags to tennis racket covers, highball glasses, and Piedmont license plates.

The Revenue Accounting Department in Winston-Salem is moving in July to another building to help alleviate a severe space problem in the General Office. The department's 120 employees will be located at the new Republic Square office complex located at the corner of University Parkway and Silas Creek Parkway at Northpoint Shopping Center. The move will be made over a weekend to avoid disruption in mail and phone calls.

The Piedmont Ski Club closed out the ski season with a four-day outing in April at Keystone, Colorado. Sixty-eight employees attended, 54 of whom participated in the National Ski Races (NASTAR). Eight won silver medals and 10, bronze.

In the women's division, Flight Attendant Nelson Phillips, ILM, took first place; Flight Attendant Elaine Albritton, ORF, second place; and Flight Attendant Kathy Grimes, ATL, third.

Dan Alman, flight attendant, ILM, took first place in the men's division; Lester Beaucham, first officer, INT, received the second place trophy; and ATL Agent Supervisor Johnny Griffiths won third.

Special

This issue of the Piedmonitor is a special edition featuring, in color, both our Charlotte complex and the new agent uniforms. The paper has also been expanded to 12 pages so that photos and the names of medal winners of the Carelines Games could be included. We hope you enjoy the departure from the regular black and white eight-page issue of your newspaper for these special highlights.

The Editor

Agent Luci Vaughn, ATL

Hundreds of travelers were greeted by an oversized rabbit on Concourse D, ATL, over Easter weekend. Employees Ann Ashton, Hutch Redwine, Dave Clark, John Noonan, and Bill Felt gave out more than 2,000 candy eggs while posing as the Easter bunny. . . . CRO employees sponsored an Easter egg hunt for over 100 children who take part in programs sponsored by the Downtown Church Center. Employees collected and decorated thousands of eggs and candy.

On May 14, Piedmont Flight 368 from Houston to Charlotte carried a mother and her daughter; both had never flown before. What's so unusual about that? The mother was 103 years old and her daughter, 82. The passengers were interviewed by Charlotte media then presented with a cake by Piedmont employees.

The Piedmont Airlines Best Ball Golf Tournament was held for Winston-Salem and Greensboro employees May 2 and 3 at Bethania Golf Club. Leonard Jackson, Stockroom, INT, and Garris Edwards, Accounts Payable, INT, won the championship flight. Leaders in the first flight were Joe Moorefield and David Baity, both Maintenance, INT. The second flight was won by W. D. Hall and R. L. Gordon, both Pilot Training, INT. Agent Bill Tise, INT, scored an ace on the third hole, 125 yards, during the tournament.

Jane Weston, Employee Benefits, INT, received the Common Stock Adviser Award from the Junior Achievers of Winston-Salem, Inc., in May. She counseled approximately 20 students who made up the JA company, Piedmont Productions, on accounting procedures. Weston, along with five other Piedmont employees, each gave more than 130 hours of volunteer time to the project this year.

Correction

In the last issue of the Piedmonitor, CRO Agent Elizabeth Church was incorrectly identified with Mr. Davis at CRO's surprise birthday party. The person in the photo was Agent Carolyn Binkley who was responsible for coordinating the special event.
