sports

BGM Agent Dave Randesi rolled his first career 300 game for a 745 series in the State Classic League on November 4. Randesi also won the annual Piedmont Bowling Tournament last March in Greensboro.

The 3rd Annual Bluewater Deep-Sea Fishing Tournament will be held Monday, June 13, out of Oregon Inlet (Nags Head, NC). Charter boats are available for up to six people for $600 per day. Plan to book as soon as possible after January 1. For more information, contact ORF agents Tony Spangler or Hank Polin at extension 311 (857-3311).

First Officer Cheryl Stearns, CLT, who was featured in the October 1987 issue of the Piedmonitor, made 255 jumps in 24 hours to set a new world endurance record in skydiving. Stearns, and a man who jumped along with her, set the dual record, beating out the previous record of 250 jumps.

Stearns, known internationally as The First Lady of Skydiving, was coached by Captain Nancy Law, CLT. A television documentary on the event will be broadcast nationally in 1988.
