

Piedmont employees at the Orlando Reservations Center celebrated the first anniversary of first-class service in day-long activities on June 15. Employees dressed in formal attire, and supervisors served tea and croissants to the agents. Toasting the event are the following: (l to r) Billie Barr, personnel representative; Chris Cortese, training instructor; Kelly Mata, agent; John Gossett, assistant manager;

Patty Wallace, agent-supervisory development; Dian Samelson, training instructor; Gary Blackburn, manager; Juanita Mullins, assistant manager; Iain McMillian, agent; Jake Norman, agent; Dennis Gola, agent; and Karen Garner, agent who was instrumental in planning and carrying out the event.

Employees achieve perfect attendance

More than 3,200 Piedmont employees were recently recognized for perfect attendance during 1987. To be eligible, these employees used no sick leave for a period of one calendar year under the guidelines of Piedmont policy.

A number of employees achieved the following milestones in perfect attendance: Pete Jones, regional director-stations (INT), logged 40 years of perfect attendance; and Sy Pierce, TYS-station manager, achieved 35 years. Attaining 30 years of service were Ted Farrington, CMI-station manager; Jim McCormick, FLL-station manager; Larry Redden, manager-operations, ORF; and Ed Kerr, ILM-station supervisor.
