FIFTY-YEAR CLASS TO MEET IN REUNION

Chapel Hill, May 31.—"Youngsters" of the University of North Carolina Class of 1884 are planning to entertain their elders at the customary "Golden Reunion" dinner of the 50-year class, which will be held here June 11 during the Commencement exercises.

The '84 class, through its president, James Lee Love, of Burlington, has issued invitation to more than a hundred alumni who belonged to university classes prior to 1884. The 50-year class hopes this feature of the university's 189th commencement will become a tradition.

The class of 1884 graduated 16 men, of whom only five now survive. These are Mr. Love, Dr. Samuel B. Turrentine, president of Greensboro College for Women; Thomas R. Rouse, of LaGrange; Ben Franklin White, of Berkeley, Calif., and Julian Wood, Edenton banker and business man.

QUINTUPLETS ARE SUFFERING FROM JAUNDICE ATTACKS

Corbeil, Ont., June 4.—Jaundice gripped the Dionne quintuplets today but their physician, Dr. A. R. Dafeo, said their condition was not alarming.

The week-old infants, however, will not be on exhibit at the Chicago world's fair this summer.

Dr. Dafeo, who is designated in a contract to determine whether the five sisters will go to Chicago, said a trip outside the province of Ontario would be extremely dangerous and that he would not consent to it.

Ovila Dionne, father of the babies, had signed a contract guaranteeing the family $250 a week and 30 per cent of the gate receipts while at the fair.

Dr. Dafeo said jaundice was not unusual in infants and they had excellent chances to live.

Eight railroads report income up 60 per cent in April.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 3.

The Golden Text was from Psalms 7:9. "Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy for I the Lord your God am holy. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord. Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God." (Leviticus 19: 1, 2, 12, 31.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is what the Scriptures declare Him to be—Life, Truth, Love. Spirit is divine Principle, and divine Principle is Love, and Love is Mind, and Mind is not both good and bad, for God is Mind, therefore there is in reality one Mind only, because there is one God." (p.330).

The third annual change picnic in Davidson County will be held at the Mills Home near Thomasville, on July 4.

Louisa's Letter

To Marry Or Not, That's The Problem

Dear Girls:—

One reader wants to know whether it is better to marry on a small salary or to wait for better times. Here is a portion of her letter:

"The boy to whom I am engaged to, and I have been going together for two years. We planned to get married three months after we first met, at which time we were both making good salaries. But just about then I lost my job and he was cut so much that we decided to wait for better times. Those times have never come, however, and here we are. If we wait much longer our youth will be gone, and if we marry without enough to live on we will be unhappy, so what are we to do?"

This perplexed reader is just one of many who have been caught in the net of the depression. She is, indeed, in a perplexing position, and how she meets it depends entirely on her own and her fiancé's dispositions.

There are some people who are happier, doing without luxuries and even necessities, if they can be together and share everything with each other. There are others, with nothing to their discredit, who, if they are compelled to do without the little niceties of life, are dreadfully unhappy. Romance and love for them will die a natural death under such circumstances. If our reader and her fiancée come in this latter case, it will be far better to wait a while longer before they take the final step. Their chance for a successful marriage will be much better.

It certainly takes an unusual couple to keep romance and love alive in the midst of privation, and such people are rare.

I am not entirely clear, however, on the subject of this reader's "small salary." If the salary is small but adequate for living without luxuries she might be happier to get married than go on being neither "fish nor fowl, nor good red herring," but if it is too small to meet the rent, food and doctor bills, I'd say wait by all means. No matter how much we love a person, worry over bills and a sense of insecurity, will make for an unhappy life.

Yours, LOUISA.
