Pool to Purchase Million Bush- Mrs. Jerman And els For Storage At Norfolk Also Is Planned

PRICE INCREASE SEEN

Washington, June 25.—As farm relief measure, and at the same time to relieve the hungry in the cities, the national emergency relief administration is to purchase potatoes from growers in North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland on a much larger scale than was originally planned, while it is possible that a potato pool, now being organized at Norfolk, will purchase a million bushels for storage. Some question arose as to whether there would be ample facilities for such a storage program, but Virginia people, including Senator Byrd, assured officials here there would be no trouble about this.

Senator Bailey arrived here to day, accompanied by Dr. Miller, director of the test farms in North Carolina, representing the governor of the state, to appear with the Virginia and Maryland delegations before Administrator Hopkins, of the federal emergency relief administration, in the intreests of the potato producers in the three

To Start Buying At Once In a conference with the authori ties of the organization, the federal emergency administration agree to buy at once one million bushels of Irish potatoes, allocations and purchase prices to be determined by the administration. It was suggested by the authorities that the price would be on the basis of surplus prices, that is, the cost of production, and this cost to be determined by the department of agri culture. It is assumed that the price will be not less than $1.50 a barrel It may be more.

The federal emergency relief administration will purchase additional quantities of potatoes for distribution as need may indicate The first one million bushels are to be purchased within six weeks, with most of the million to be purchased right away. New York City alone will take 500 cars. The total number of cars is 2,000.

To Boost Prices The dealers will be contacted by the proper authorities here, with the view to making an end to cutthroat competition and prices. The authorities estimated that the purchase would tend to lift the price of potatoes to $1.50 a barrel, and perhaps more.

It was stated by the authorities that North Carolina had increased her acreage in Irish potatoes this

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Is the Universe, Including Man Evolved by Atomic Force?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June

The Golden Text was from Corinthians 8:6. "To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him."

Among the citations which com rised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain; Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind: Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.' (Psalms 104, 1: 3, 5.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." by Mary Baker Eddy: " 'Let there be light' is the perpet ual demand of Truth and changing chaos into order and dis cord into the music of the spheres The mythical human theories of creation, anciently classified as the higher criticism, sprang from cultured scholars in Rome and in Greece, but they afforded no foun-

The cities of Asheville, Burlington, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Wilmington, Winston-Salem, Shelby and Salisbury pesented a petition vesterday to the Public Utilities Commission asking that investigation of telephone rates be made in their municipalities as well as Raleigh. Our suggestion is that the investigation should be state-wide in its scope as the telephone is a public utility and all of the citizens of the state are entitled to the same basic rate. Of course, the rates must be worked out on local conditions and the cost of operating in each city. Capital is entitled to a reasonable income upon its investment, but excessive budget charges and set-ups should not be allowed. The rates in Rocky Mount were raised several years ago and notwithstanding the cost of material and equipment has been greatly reduced, salaries cut, and still this high rate is being maintained.

Our Board of Aldermen was very generous in dealing with the Telephone Company; in fact, we were informed that they got the Board to join in their recommendation for higher rates, which some of our citizens have never been able to understand until this good day.

We believe, as above stated, that the Telephone Company is entitled to a reasonable income, but Rocky Mount should be included in this petition and our Mayor and Board of Aldermen should join in this request and do it immediately, and if the Board of Aldermen will not join in the request, then some citizen should present the request to the Commission, for telephone charges are high In Rocky Mount.

WE WONDER

According to press reports sent out by the Associated Press on side lights of the last convention a statement was made that the name of Ex-Governor Gardner was not mentioned, or called during the several hours of the convention, by and of its speakers neither was the name of Hon. Clyde Hoey mentioned or called except a telegram was sent into the convention addressed to some one in care of Clyde Hoey, although one state paper stated he was one of the high of the convention.

It is possible that the great economy program inaugurated by Gov. Gardner is becoming understood by the people. They are finding that the wonderful centralization of power under his administration created a deficit of eighteen and one-half million dollars.

We wonder if these figures had anything to do with the absence of mentioning his name by his friends.

TO SEEK AMITY

Reports are current that the President is anxious to clarify and, if possible, improve American-Japanese relations. Some believe that high Japanese officials will meet him at Honolulu this summer but others doubt it.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORDS VOTED MONEY AND POWER WALL STREET BELLED STOCK MARKET REFORMED ROOSEVELT'S AUTHORITY

The 73rd Congress made several records. In fact, it abounded in them. To begin with, it set a new pace in giving power to the President and in voting expenditures. For fifteen months it has pushed to enactment measures that made sweeping changes in the economic structure, and from its beginning, in March, 1933, when it passed an emergency banking law the Congress began to break precedents,

The special session last year ran 100 days and the regular session lasted 167 days, making a total of 267 legislative days-the shortest in 30 years and the second shortest in 100 years. Due to the Norris lame duck amendment its term of office ends January 3, 1935, instead of the usual two years, thus making the actual life of the Congress shorter than any.

Something like ten billion dollars was appropriated and the government was pledged to contingent liabilities of about half as much again, as Congress followed the President in his fight upon depression and withheld practically nothing that was asked to aid the battle. While 13,753 bills were introduced in the two houses only 330 major pieces of legislation were enacted, exclusive of private and local bills. The Senate confirmed 6,000 appointments, rejected 3 and caused the withdrawal of several by threatened opposition.

Relations between the Chief Executive and Congress were marked by an eager willingness of the members to stand by the President, although on three occasions adverse action was taken. These rebuffs were rejection of the St. Lawrence waterway treaty, passage over his veto of the independent offices bill increasing veterans' compensation, and enactment of a processing tax on cocoanut oil from the Philippine Islands in the face of opposition that this was "bad faith."

Tight as was the hold which the President exercised upon Congress the Democratic House leadership found it necessary to impose one of the strictest gag rules in history on its membership. It was done to prevent action on legislation obnoxious, but vote-appealing, such as the McLeod bill to pay off bank depositors, the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage refinancing bill, and the Connery 30-hour a week work bill.

On the first of next month Wall Street, synonymous in much of the public mind with chicanery and shady manipulations, will pass under the control of a five-man commission, known as the Stock Market Commission, with immense powers far exceeding those of most government agencies. The new control is designed to prevent such bull markets as that which collapsed in 1929 and precipitated the present economic crisis.

All exchanges will be licensed by the new commission. Every firm that issues securities must report
