GENE STRATTON-PORTER'S "GIRL OF THE LIMBERLOST" MAKES APPEALING FILM

How a girl of the Indiana swamplands overcame the obstacles that would have prevented her from gaining an education, is the story unfolded in "A Girl of the Limberlost," powerful story of American rural life, which comes to the screen of the Cameo Theatre next Wednesday for a three day run.

Jerome Eddy, Betty Blythe, Eddie Nugent, Barbara Bedford, Tommy Bupp, and GIGI Parrish, 19 34 Wampas baby star.

One of the most popular of the Gene Stratton-Porter stories, "A Girl of the Limberlost" has had a book sale of 1,750,000 copies since its publication in 1910, and is estimated to have been read by more than 12,000,000 persons.

TEN MILLIONTH CHEVROLET MADE

The 10,000,000th Chevrolet car came off the assembly line at Flint, Mich., Nov. 13, as Chevrolet workers all over the United States joined in a celebration marking the 23rd anniversary of the founding of the Chevrolet Motor Company.

Ceremonies were held at each of the nine Chevrolet assembling plants throughout the country, at which company officials were hosts to civic leaders and persons prominent in state and local government.

The building of the 10,000,000th Chevrolet was observed with ceremonies participated in by M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of the company, and the principal members of his staff.
