

SQUADS WRITE

Leaves & Furloughs

Lt. Gilly Nicholson
 Cpl. Allen Alderman
 Pfc. Robt. W. Eason
 Sgt. Charles Hoard, Jr.
 Sgt. David Sugg
 Lt. Howard Vick
 Lt. C. S. Killebrew
 Ens. John Ivey Eagles
 G. L. Flint USN
 L.R. "Boots" Parker
 Pvt. Frank Craft
 Cpl. Weeks A. Andrews
 Charles Cullen USN
 Lt. Geo. Pennington
 Pvt. Roy C. Armstrong
 Lt. L. H. Fountain
 T/Sgt. Howard Roberson
 Lt. Clarence Flye
 Pvt. Aaron Keene
 Pfc. Jeff Tooley
 Pvt. Henry C. Bourne, Jr.
 S/Sgt. Earl Whitehurst
 Pvt. Milton R. Cherry
 Thomas H. Doughtie USA
 Pfc. Percy A. Walston
 Pvt. J. S. Brewer
 Lt. Wm. Thad Hussey, Jr.
 Pvt. Geo. Allen Warren
 Pvt. Wm. N. Sutton
 Pvt. Ray, Lilley
 Cpl. S. J. Brewer
 Pfc. J. B. Bryant
 Cpl. Lyman Everett
 S/Sgt. Walter Roberson
 S/Sgt. Clayton E. Roberson
 Sgt. Julian Barnhill
 Cpl. Percy Everett
 Sgt. Ben Lovelace
 Pvt. Frank Kraft
 Cedric Pittman USN
 Pvt. Roscoe Kirkland
 Cpl. Junius Koonce

Doug Hathaway, recent honor graduate from Tarboro High, as civilian guest of the Rotary Club helped assemble the HFN for mailing; is now studying to be an engineer with the V-12 Naval Unit at Hoboken, N.J. & received instead of sends the Home Front News.

Pvt. Robt. L. Moore is a cook & his Mess Hall at Camp Campbell, Ky feeds 600 men a day. P.F.C. Jesse Kent, of Fort Knox Ky is in an Armored Force School for Radio Operator. S/Sgt. W. H. Sessoms of Clovis, New Mexico has his wife with him

Lt. Earl Alexander is near El Paso, Texas & spends spare time in Juarez, Mexico where he has only kind comments for Mexican girls. P.F.C. Ernest T. Armstrong U.S.M.C is in the South Pacific. Lt. Charles S. Killebrew Jr. graduates from the Army Air Force Bombardier School, San Angelo, Texas.

Pvt. Robert A. Fulford is guarding enemy prisoners in Nebraska. Cpl W.D. Dail is stationed at Denver, Col. is in the Recruit Classification Dept. Pvt. Frank S. Taylor, 25 yr old son of Mrs. Lillie A. Taylor of Rocky Mount, after 16 mos in the service finds himself in Sicily.

Cpl. Hal Liles has been in the hospital for 3 weeks in New Orleans with an infected foot - said foot kept him this side of the water & has now landed him in a "Cold" outfit. Norman E. Wells, U. S. N who has seen foreign service is now in hospital & will be there for sometime - write him (See address section)

Capt. W. Durwood Leggett, Jr. U.S.N. is a Repair & Machinery Superintendent of the Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal. Pvt. Alvin A. Woodard Jr. is in Engineer School. Cpl. Amos Joyner is in North Africa. Lt. Col. Wm. H. Fillmore is Executive Officer, Drew Field, Tampa, Florida.

PFC. David C. Derby of Sioux Falls, S.D. says the wind sure blows "up north took a small parked plane & turned it over on its - well what was its bottom became its top; & didn't break a thing.

Pfc. Jesse (Red) Kent (ex Runnymede Soft Ball Player is in Fort Knox, Ky. is a little worried about Comrade James Pilley whose interest in Kentucky women (pardon woman) is greater than his love of horses or blue grass.

Major T. B. Winstead, formerly of Leggetts, now Army: Big Shot of Dayton Ohio, writes an extended and interesting letter recalling C.M T. C. days at Fort Bragg when the writer, Josh Winstead (now Lt. Col) Buzzard Clayton, Res Boykin, "Ye Editor" and others learned the manual of arms as 17 years old military minded youths. Says that his secretary (who also has the roll of U.S.O. Hostess in Dayton) carries the HFN to the local club to be read by hundred.

A/C Patrick Henry Lane has received his silver wings as an American Air Force Pilot. Lt. Earl West Jr., late of Scotland, now of England is in contact with Sam Sheffield and they have planned a meeting in London; Earl got his questionnaire in late because "one has to stop for tea so much, you know and 'Cherio' and all that stuff."