

The STAFF

EDITOR: BILL BABCOCK

BUS. MGR: DAIL HOLDERNESS

ARTIST: ALICE EVANS

CONTRIBUTING REPORTERS

Mrs. G. W. Peebles
Mrs. John Varnell
Mrs. Edgar Clark
Mrs. J.A. Viverette
Mrs. J.T. Lawrence, Jr
Miss Julia Lovelace
Miss Mildred Worsley
Mrs. S. B. Kittrell
Miss Josie Howell
Mrs. G. F. Tucker
Mrs. H. T. Taylor

TYPISTS & WORKERS

Mrs. Tom Collins, Jr.
Miss Mary McDaniel
Miss Mace Edmondson
Miss Carrie L. Waters
Miss Daisy Smith
Mrs. Katherine Miller
Miss Ellen Walston
Miss Phoebe J. Harris
Miss Elizabeth Proctor
Mrs. Cameron Weeks
Miss Lorraine Edwards
Miss Eloise Owens
Mrs. Lucy G. Mills
Miss Estaline Page
Mrs. Beulah Hoard
Mrs. Mozelle Scott
Mrs. M. Alice Kent
Miss Sallie Vick
Miss Virginia Hales
Miss Dene Creech
Miss Dolores Cobb
Miss Sara Jennings
Mrs. James Barnett
Miss Mary M. Ausbon
Miss Josephine Arnold.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

The good soldier is a Christian and the Christian is a good soldier. Christ has had a particular appeal to soldiers in every generation. I think that He has lured soldiers to Him not only because of their great need of Him, to lead them on in the way of the cross, to give them the righteousness which is their fundamental right, to inspire that confidence in eternal life with which they can face death as men; but also because of that deep understanding of Christ which the soldier has ever manifested. In the days of His flesh, of all the people He met, none seemed to understand His Almighty Deity as the soldier did. In the Gospels we read of the Roman Centurion or Captain who sought the healing of his servant at the hands of Jesus, saying, "Lord, speak the word only & my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth, and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it." He, who knew authority & power, recognized the infinite power and authority of Jesus to command not only men but the forces of nature, the germs of disease, the demons of Satan. And to this Soldier of Old, Jesus said, "I have not found so great faith, not in Israel." It was another soldier who at the cross seeing how Jesus died, recognized in the manner of His dying Divinity and cried out, "surely this was the Son of God." Let us as soldiers, today, recognize His Divinity, His authority over all, His invincible power and follow Him as our Lord & Master & the Captain of our Salvation.

ASSEMBLY AND MAILING AGENTS:
THE ENTIRE TARBORO ROTARY CLUB

THE EDITOR'S CORNER: The complaint now is that I tell stories on everyone else but none on my self. Well this is the tale of a suit or rather not just the tale but all of it. Due to a little altercation with a drunk in a barber shop the coat was well torn and the altercation resulted in alterations which necessitated cutting up the vest to repair the coat. The three piece suit is now down to pants and mended coat. A protruding spring on Ye Editor's 7 Year old motor vehicle caused a rent in the embarrassing part of the pants & the wife delivered the pants to her mother in law (not of course, because she couldn't mend them just as well etc-etc.) The mother in law took in as a tourist, a soldier boy who shortly departed without leaving the customary fee but leaving only after he had taken the contents of the ice-box and "Ye Editor's" pants which, thank Heaven, had yet to be mended. So suit now is composed of one mended coat. If you see a soldier with my pants, tell him he can have the mended coat too if he will call for same as I want nothing more to do with that suit -- its jinxed.

Members of the Tarboro Rotary Club, Members of the Home Front News Staff and Every Edgecombe County Man in Uniform has the right and the privilege to say what goes into the Home Front News. No one else has that right. If, and when, any member of the above named three groups think the jokes too spicy or the pictures too risqué then we will do something about it. Remember this is not a paper for civilians, for minors or the Ladies aid; it is for adult fighting men and women, who, perchance, may receive some pleasure and relaxation from the pictures and the printed word herein contained.