A LETTER TO HIGHLANDS

Highlands, my beloved home, I miss your majestic mountains, and your silvery singing waters. I miss your shady little lanes with their rickety rackety vine-covered fences wobbling along on either side. I miss the sun coming up over the crest of the hills, casting its rays down through the early morning mist and throwing multi-colored shafts of light into the valley below. I miss the golden meadows dotted with patches (con't. page 2)

----- HIGHLANDS SCHOOL OPENS ON WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 3

Prin. F. N. Shearouse has announced that the Highlands school will begin the 1952-53 session at 9:00 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Sept. 3. Parents and friends of the school are invited to attend an opening exercise to be held in the auditorium on the same morning at 9:30 o'clock. Several ministers of the town, the school committee, and a number of patrons and friends are expected to be present. It is desired that every effort be made by all of us to have a large enrollment in the high (con't page 4)

----- JOYCE BURNETTE WEDS RALPH WETMORE, Jr.

Miss Joyce Burnette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dana Burnette of Highlands, was married to Ralph Hinsdale Wetmore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wetmore of Miami, Fla. and Highlands, in a ceremony at 5:30 p.m. Saturday in Highlands Baptist Church.

The Rev. Joseph R. Petree of Lawndale, N.C., brother-in-law of the bride performed the ceremony and a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Bascom Cook, organist, and Miss Elizabeth Newton, Miss Martha Holt, and the Rev. John C. Corbitt, vocalists. The church was decorated with white gladioli, ivy and mountain greenery, with lighted tapers in seven-branched candelabra. (con't. on page 5)
