HILLBILLY DAY

A home is the keystone and foundation of our American way of life and takes second place in our hearts only to our family-from time immemorial-man's home has been his castle.

The locale of that home, be it a picturesque mansion or a simple mountain retreat, becomes our domain and whatever happens in that domain is of vital concern to each of us.

You have the rare good fortune to call Highlands your domain and its steady, well-deserved growth over the years, is undeniable proof and a constant reminder that we, who share this domain, have more than average reason to be proud of this-our community.

The July Court of Honor will be held July 8 at 7:30 o'clock in Franklin at the Methodist Church. All scouts who are not in camp, also their parents and friends, are urged to attend this meeting. The Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. Dewey Hopper, and Explorer Advisor, Mr. Willard Crisp, will have charge of getting the boys to the Court of Honor. All who wish to attend are asked to meet in front of the Highlands Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m.

An attendance contest which will continue for about five months will be started. Let's go, and help keep Highlands Troop up front.

DEVELOPING "BROADVIEW ACRES"

Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Phinney and son Randy and Mrs. Phinney's mother, Mrs. R.K. Wilson, of Miami, are here for the summer, renting Mrs. E.B. Thomas' cottage on Cullasaja Drive. They are getting quite a thrill with their development of "Broadview Acres" on Little Horseshoe Mountain which is part of the Tennessee Valley Divide. It is located just off the Dillard road less than a mile from the Country Club.

It is very difficult for Mrs. Phinney to select her building site, as they all have beautiful views, some facing Brushy Face, Kettle Rock, Little Yellow Mt., Shortoff, Big Yellow, Dog Mt., and Blue Valley.
